Pursuant to Section 44, subdivision 4,
of the Judiciary Law in Relation to

FORMAL
WRITTEN COMPLAINT

RANDY ALEXANDER,

a Justice of the Mansfield Town Court,
Cattaraugus County.

1. Article 6, Section 22, of the Constitution of the State of New York establishes a Commission on Judicial Conduct (“Commission”), and Section 44, subdivision 4, of the Judiciary Law empowers the Commission to direct that a Formal Written Complaint be drawn and served upon a judge.

2. The Commission has directed that a Formal Written Complaint be drawn and served upon Randy Alexander (“Respondent”), a Justice of the Mansfield Town Court, Cattaraugus County.

3. The factual allegations set forth in Charges I, II, III, and IV state acts of judicial misconduct by Respondent in violation of the Rules of the Chief Administrator of the Courts Governing Judicial Conduct (“Rules”).

4. Respondent has been a Justice of the Mansfield Town Court, Cattaraugus County, since 1989. Respondent’s current term expires on December 31, 2017. He is not an attorney.

CHARGE I

5. From in or about September 2014 through in or about January 2015, Respondent failed to cooperate with the Commission during its investigation of the matters herein.

Specifications to Charge I

6. Judiciary Law Section 44(3) and 22 NYCRR Sections 7000.3(c) and (e) authorize the Commission to request a written response from a judge who is the subject of a complaint and to require a judge to appear and give testimony during the investigation.

7. By letter dated August 11, 2014, the Commission notified Respondent that it was investigating complaints alleging that he engaged in numerous acts of judicial misconduct. In connection with the investigation, the Commission requested that Respondent appear to give testimony on September 4, 2014, at the Commission's office in Rochester, New York. A copy of the letter is appended as Exhibit 1.

8. By letter dated August 14, 2014, the Commission notified Respondent that his appearance to give testimony was rescheduled to September 16, 2014. A copy of the letter is appended as Exhibit 2.

9. On September 15, 2015, the Commission received a letter from Respondent dated September 10, 2014, requesting an adjournment of his September 16, 2014 appearance to give testimony, "until Nov because of health reasons." A copy of the letter is appended as Exhibit 3.

10. Between September 15 and September 29, 2014, Commission staff attempted without success on several occasions to communicate with Respondent by telephone. Respondent did not return any of the Commission's telephone calls.

11. By letter dated September 29, 2014, the Commission advised Respondent that it had not received any responsive telephone call from him concerning his adjournment request, and that he was believed to be presiding on his scheduled court nights despite his alleged health issues. The letter also advised Respondent that his appearance to give testimony would be rescheduled and could take place at a location geographically closer to Respondent's home, that his appearance was not optional and that a failure to appear may itself constitute judicial misconduct and be the basis for public discipline. The Commission requested a responsive telephone call from Respondent forthwith. A copy of the letter is appended as Exhibit 4. Respondent failed to reply to the letter.

12. By letter dated October 3, 2014, the Commission advised Respondent that it had received no reply to its letter dated September 29, 2014. A copy of the letter is appended as Exhibit 5. Respondent failed to reply to the letter.

13. By letter dated October 14, 2014, the Commission documented Respondent's failure to respond to prior Commission telephone calls and letters. The letter also rescheduled Respondent's appearance to give testimony before a Commission-appointed referee to November 13, 2014. The letter requested that Respondent confirm his appearance by November 6, 2014. A copy of the letter is appended as Exhibit 6. Respondent failed to reply to the letter.

14. On November 13, 2014, Respondent failed to appear to give testimony as scheduled. Respondent had not communicated with the Commission to request an adjournment. A transcript of the proceeding on November 13, 2014, is appended as Exhibit 7.

15. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent should be disciplined for cause, pursuant to Article 6, Section 22, subdivision (a), of the Constitution and Section 44, subdivision 1, of the Judiciary Law, in that Respondent failed to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary by failing to maintain high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary would be preserved, in violation of Section 100.1 of the Rules; and failed to avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety, in that he failed to respect and comply with the law and failed to act in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary, in violation of Section 100.2(A) of the Rules.

18. Mr. Scott did not appear on his initial court date. By letter dated April 19, 2011, Mr. Scott advised the court that he missed his court date because he had moved to Pennsylvania. Mr. Scott asked Respondent whether there was “any way that we can deal with this without ... appearing before the court?”

19. By letter dated April 28, 2011, Respondent’s court clerk advised Mr. Scott that Respondent was “offering [a] compromise” which provided: “1. False impersonation [sic] charge will be dismissed. 2. Alcoholic Beverage Consumption by a minor will be a [sic] one-hundred dollar charge ($100). If payment of $100 is not received by this court on or before May 25, 2011 this offer is null and void and the original charges reinstated.”

20. By letter dated May 25, 2011, Respondent’s court clerk advised Mr. Scott that the court had not received the $100 payment, that Respondent had signed a warrant for his arrest and that payment by certified check or money order should be made to the court.

25. Mr. Scott pleaded guilty to the Alcohol Beverage Control charge and paid a $100 fine that Respondent imposed. The maximum fine provided by statute for Mr. Scott's ABC charge was $50.

26. Respondent failed to mechanically record the court proceeding on or about September 21, 2011, as required by Section 30.1 of the Rules of the Chief Judge and Administrative Order 245/08 of the Chief Administrative Judge of the Courts.

No member of the Cattaraugus County District Attorney's Office was present. Mr. Newark appeared before Respondent in the custody of the Cattaraugus County Sheriff's Office.

28. Prior to Mr. Newark's appearance, Respondent met privately with Amanda Krug, the criminal complainant. Ms. Krug told Respondent that she wished to drop the charges against Mr. Newark and Respondent told her that she needed to write a statement in order to withdraw the charge. Ms. Krug handwrote a statement in accordance with Respondent's instruction.

29. At the arraignment, Respondent dismissed the charge, in the absence of any plea recommendation by, and without notice to or the consent of, the Cattaraugus County District Attorney's Office.

30. Respondent failed to mechanically record the court proceeding on or about September 15, 2011, as required by Section 30.1 of the Rules of the Chief Judge and Administrative Order 245/08 of the Chief Administrative Judge of the Courts.

32. On or about April 11, 2012, Mr. Polczynski entered a plea of guilty by mail to the charge. Respondent subsequently issued Mr. Polczynski repeated fine notices, dated April 21, 2012, April 25, 2012, and May 18, 2012, imposing a sentence of a $100 fine and $85 surcharge.

33. On or about June 4, 2012, Respondent presided over People v Sebastian P. Polczynski. Mr. Polczynski appeared in person. The town prosecutor was not present.

37. Mr. Smith pleaded guilty to the charge. On his own motion, Respondent reduced the charge to a parking violation (VTL §1201[a]) and imposed a $50 fine and $85 surcharge, in the absence of any plea recommendation by, and without notice to or the consent of, the Mansfield Town Prosecutor. There was no statutory authority to impose any surcharge for the parking charge conviction.

38. Respondent failed to mechanically record the court proceeding on or about November 14, 2012, as required by Section 30.1 of the Rules of the Chief Judge and Administrative Order 245/08 of the Chief Administrative Judge of the Courts.

39. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent should be disciplined for cause, pursuant to Article 6, Section 22, subdivision (a), of the Constitution and Section 44, subdivision 1, of the Judiciary Law, in that Respondent failed to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary by failing to maintain high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary would be preserved, in violation of Section

100.1 of the Rules; failed to avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety, in that he failed to respect and comply with the law and failed to act in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary, in violation of Section 100.2(A) of the Rules; and failed to perform the duties of judicial office impartially and diligently, in that he failed to be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it, in violation of Section 100.3(B)(1) of the Rules, initiated, permitted or considered ex parte communications, or considered other communications made to the judge outside the presence of the parties or their lawyers concerning a pending or impending proceeding, in violation of Section 100.3(B)(6) of the Rules, and failed to diligently discharge his administrative responsibilities and failed to maintain professional competence in judicial administration, in violation of Section 100.3(C)(1) of the Rules.

CHARGE III

40. From on or about January 11, 2012, to on or about September 12, 2012, Respondent presided over People v Patricia J. Fitzgerald, People v Helen R. Gross and People v Ekatarina M. Russell, engaged in ex parte conversations with the defendants in each case, and then dismissed and/or reduced charges, without notice to or the consent of the prosecution, contrary to Criminal Procedure Law §§ 170.30, 170.40, 170.45, 210.45, 220.10(3) and 340.20.

Specifications to Charge III

People v Patricia J. Fitzgerald

41. On or about January 11, 2012, Respondent arraigned Patricia J. Fitzgerald on a charge of trespass (PL §140.05). No member of the Cattaraugus County District Attorney's Office was present.

42. Respondent discussed factual allegations of the charge ex parte with Ms. Fitzgerald, who contended that she entered the premises where the trespass allegedly occurred to serve process. Respondent sarcastically commented, "Sorry you were doing this ... doing your job ... Shame on you." Respondent expressed his personal objection to the charge by stating, "[T]his is tit for tat."

43. Respondent dismissed the charge, in the absence of any plea recommendation by, and without notice to or the consent of, the Cattaraugus County District Attorney's Office.

People v Helen R. Gross

44. On or about January 11, 2012, Respondent presided over the arraignment of People v Helen R. Gross on a charge of uninspected motor vehicle (VTL §306[b]). The town prosecutor was not present.

45. During the arraignment, Respondent asked that the recording of the proceeding be turned off, in violation of Section 30.1 of the Rules of the Chief Judge and Administrative Order 245/08 of the Chief Administrative Judge of the Courts and thereafter spoke ex parte with Ms. Gross regarding the charge.

46. Respondent then dismissed the charge, in the absence of any plea recommendation by, and without notice to or the consent of, the Mansfield Town Prosecutor.

People v Ekatarina M. Russell

47. On or about September 12, 2012, Respondent arraigned Ekatarina M. Russell on a charge of unreasonable and imprudent speed (VTL §1180[a]). The town prosecutor was not present.

48. Respondent reduced the charge to a parking violation (VTL §1201[a]) and imposed an $85 fine, in the absence of any plea recommendation by, and without notice to or the consent of, the Mansfield Town Prosecutor.

49. In initiating and granting the reduction, Respondent stated, “This is unorthodox. I can do it. I’m not supposed to do it.” Respondent then directed that the recording of the proceeding be terminated, in violation of Section 30.1 of the Rules of the Chief Judge and Administrative Order 245/08 of the Chief Administrative Judge of the Courts and spoke ex parte with Ms. Russell and her mother regarding the charge.

50. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent should be disciplined for cause, pursuant to Article 6, Section 22, subdivision (a), of the Constitution and Section 44, subdivision 1, of the Judiciary Law, in that Respondent failed to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary by failing to maintain high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary would be preserved, in violation of Section 100.1 of the Rules; failed to avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety, in that he failed to respect and comply with the law and failed to act in a manner that promotes

CHARGE IV

51. From on or about January 11, 2012, to on or about March 28, 2012, while presiding over People v Donna Wulff and People v Robert J. Ferrando, Respondent engaged in improper ex parte communications and imposed fines in the absence of guilty pleas or any finding of guilt. Respondent failed to record the proceeding on or about February 8, 2012, in People v Wulff, as required by Section 30.1 of the Rules of the Chief Judge and Administrative Order 245/08 of the Chief Administrative Judge of the Courts. Respondent used undignified and discourteous language on the bench on or about March 28, 2012, in People v Ferrando.

Specifications to Charge IV

People v Donna Wulff

52. On or about January 11, 2012, Respondent presided over People v Donna Wulff (“Wulff”). Ms. Wulff had approximately nine local dog law charges pending against her, alleging that she had allowed her dog to run at large between August 12, 2011, and November 9, 2011.

53. Respondent engaged in a discussion of factual allegations concerning the charges with Ms. Wulff and William Hebdon, a potential witness who appeared with Ms. Wulff. Animal Control Officer Mary Dankert, who filed the complaints and prosecuted dog law charges, was not present. Respondent adjourned the matter without providing notification of the return date to Ms. Wulff.

54. On or about February 8, 2012, notwithstanding that Ms. Wulff had not been notified to appear at court and was not present, Respondent engaged in ex parte communications with Officer Dankert and some complainants regarding Wulff, and reviewed photographs concerning the pending charges against Ms. Wulff.

55. Respondent failed to mechanically record the February 8, 2012 proceeding, as required by Section 30.1 of the Rules of the Chief Judge and Administrative Order 245/08 of the Chief Administrative Judge of the Courts.

56. On or about March 14, 2012, Respondent presided over Wulff and, in reference to the February 8, 2012 proceeding, stated to Ms. Wulff, "... in court the other night, whenever that was ... I did have enough proof against you with the dogs."

Notwithstanding that Ms. Wulff never entered any plea of guilty, Respondent stated:

right now, I'm going to fine you this time for 100 bucks.
Okay? If I get any more complaints, any complaints on this again, fines are just going to keep doubling ... and doubling
... and doubling.

57. Respondent did not identify the complaint or complaints for which he was imposing a sentence and did not respond to Ms. Wulff's immediate protest about the court appearance that she was not notified to attend, saying: "This isn't fair. How come the people were here and we weren't?"

58. Respondent stated the names of five complainants and read from three of the complaints filed against Ms. Wulff. Ms. Wulff denied factual allegations and provided information about how long her electric dog fence had been operational. Respondent stated:

... I'm not going to keep getting these complaints. Ain't gonna do it. Okay, I mean, I have to do something. The evidence is in front of me. Okay? Keep the dog tied up. Keep it confined. It's $100 tonight, fine. I just, I got to do something.

Ms. Wulff paid the $100 fine.

People v Robert J. Ferrando

59. On or about March 14, 2012, while speaking to the court clerk approximately two weeks prior to the scheduled arraignment of Robert J. Ferrando on a charge of trespass (PL §140.05), Respondent referred to Mr. Ferrando as "that numb nuts" and stated that he was going to order Mr. Ferrando to pay Robert Watkins, the complainant, for an alleged vehicle towing cost incurred in connection with the charge.

60. On or about March 28, 2012, Respondent presided over the arraignment in People v Robert J. Ferrando. No member of the Cattaraugus County District Attorney's Office was present.

61. After Mr. Ferrando advised Respondent that he had retained counsel and provided his attorney's name, Respondent scheduled an April court date and asked Mr. Ferrando if he had copies of the court papers to give his attorney. When Mr. Ferrando asked if his charge was "just like a ticket," Respondent replied, "Yeah." When Mr. Ferrando asked, "Can't I just pay it and we're over with?" Respondent replied:

Well, yeah. I don't know why you're, why you want to have an attorney, but ... you spend your money any way you want to, because the fine's a hell of a lot less than what your attorney's going to charge you.

62. Respondent imposed a $100 fine and a $55 surcharge as a sentence, notwithstanding that Mr. Ferrando never entered a guilty plea or was adjudicated guilty. Mr. Ferrando paid $155 and was issued a receipt.

63. Respondent informed Mr. Ferrando that he had spoken with Mr. Watkins earlier in the evening regarding Mr. Ferrando's having already paid for the towing cost incurred in connection with the charge, and that he had told Mr. Watkins in reference to the payment received from Mr. Ferrando, to "Fucking cash the check, why don't you?"

64. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent should be disciplined for cause, pursuant to Article 6, Section 22, subdivision (a), of the Constitution and Section 44, subdivision 1, of the Judiciary Law, in that Respondent failed to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary by failing to maintain high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary would be preserved, in violation of Section 100.1 of the Rules; failed to avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety, in that he failed to respect and comply with the law and failed to act in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary, in violation of Section 100.2(A) of the Rules; and failed to perform the duties of judicial office impartially and diligently, in that he failed to be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it, in violation of Section 100.3(B)(1) of the Rules, failed to be patient, dignified and courteous to those with whom he dealt in an official capacity, in violation of Section 100.3(B)(3) of the Rules, initiated, permitted or considered ex parte communications, or considered other communications made to the judge outside the presence of the parties or their lawyers concerning a pending or impending proceeding, in violation of Section 100.3(B)(6) of the Rules, and failed to diligently discharge his administrative responsibilities and failed to maintain professional competence in judicial administration, in violation of Section 100.3(C)(1) of the Rules.

WHEREFORE, by reason of the foregoing, the Commission should take whatever further action it deems appropriate in accordance with its powers under the Constitution and the Judiciary Law of the State of New York.

Re: Complaint

To Whom It May Concern:

I am a practicing attorney in the Buffalo area with an office located in Lackawanna, New York. I make this complaint against Judge Randy Alexander. He is the Town Justice in Mansfield Town Court in the County of Cattaraugus. The name of the case is The People of the State of New York v. Edward Casey. I do not have an index number for the case.

I have enclosed a letter that I have sent to the Administrative and Supervising Judge of the Eighth Judicial District, Paula A. Feroletto, J.S.C. I have not had a response from Judge Feroletto as of today. I have had some conversations with the F.B.I. and Congressman Thomas Reed's office, as well as the New York State Police. I am not sure if the local media would be interested in the story. The letter to Judge Feroletto explains my complaint.

With discussions with the F.B.I., it was my understanding that what is going on is the Judge sets high bail in the beginning of the case (sometimes as high as $1,400.00 for a D.W.I., first offense, no accident, no injury), puts the money into an interest bearing account, and keeps the case going as long as possible to earn as much interest as possible.

This is pure speculation on my part and I have no independent proof of that allegation. However, I do believe it is improper to hold bail after the case has been concluded.

Thank you for your valuable time and consideration in this matter and consideration in this matter and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Very truly yours,

Paul S. Wailer, Esq.

The Honorable Paula L. Feroletto, J.S.C.
Supervising Judge, 8th Judicial District
92 Franklin Street, 2nd Floor
Buffalo, NY 14202

Dear Judge Feroletto:

I am a practicing attorney in the Buffalo area with an office located in Lackawanna, NY. On October 9, 2011, my friend, Edward Casey, was arrested for Driving While Intoxicated. I posted $700.00 bail by credit card for him that night. I have enclosed a copy of the bail receipt.

Edward Casey hired attorney Matthew Swenson to represent him in Mansfield Town Court. Judge Randy Alexander was the Judge assigned to handle the case. As the case progressed for several months, I spoke with Judge Alexander several times regarding the release of the $700.00 bail on my credit card as I was being charged interest each month. Judge Alexander said he would release the bail on Mr. Casey's first court appearance with his attorney.

I believe the first court appearance was over six months later. However, the bail was not released. The case was fully concluded in the beginning of October, 2012, approximately one year after the arrest. Judge Alexander stated to all parties in the courtroom that the bail would be released immediately.

The bail has not been released. So, again, I called Judge Alexander and asked him to release the bail. He said he would do so after all the fines were paid. I said that my bail money can not be held as ransom until the Defendant's fines are paid and that he would have to release the money immediately. He simply refuses.

I have since contacted the F.B.I., the New York State Troopers, Congressman Thomas Reed's office, and the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct. I just simply want may bail money released.

My last telephone call with Judge Alexander was not good. He stated that I had to be the "big shot" for posting bail that night and he would only release the bail after "all the paperwork is in order and the fines are paid and if you don't like it, call my supervisor."

I hope this letter explains the situation and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Very truly yours,

3. repeatedly using profane language in speaking with his court clerk and attorneys in his courtroom including stating, fuck, fucking, ass, son of a bitch and shit;"
4. making flippant remarks to his court clerk and an attorney in People v. Pollyann Costello, regarding the appearance of a defendant, stating words to the effect, "if she [the defendant] comes in on the thirteenth and she ain't got shit, send her ass to jail," and "Counselor, you client's full of shit... I see her driving to or from that American Legion in Ellicottville, I'll call the cops myself... She's a liar, cause I know she's a liar and she's lying about it;"
5. submitting documents to the State determining that an interlock device was not required in a case involving a defendant charged with Driving While Intoxicated, after speaking ex parte with the defendant;

2   JUDGE ALEXANDER:       Okay, our favorite person's not coming in.
3   MR. BALDWIN:           Who's that, Costello?
4   JUDGE ALEXANDER:       Yeah. How come you wrote her a letter
5                            asking her to come in on June the 13th with all
6                            that information?
7   MR. BALDWIN:           I had talked to you about it.
8   JUDGE ALEXANDER:       Yeah, I know you did, but I thought you
9                            meant for tonight.
10  MR. BALDWIN:           Oh, oh, no, because she wasn't even 11                            scheduled for tonight.
12  JUDGE ALEXANDER:       Oh, I thought she was.
13  MR. BALDWIN:           No.
14  JUDGE ALEXANDER:       Oh.
15  MR. BALDWIN:           No.
16  JUDGE ALEXANDER:       So, she's coming in on the 13th.
17  MR. BALDWIN:           Okay.
18  JUDGE ALEXANDER:       Okay.
19  MR. BALDWIN:           Does she have, does she have--
20  JUDGE ALEXANDER:       --Supposedly she does. He told me that he 21                            agrees that, Dimmer called me tonight and he 22                            agrees, if she comes in on the 13th and she 23                            ain't got shit, send her ass to jail.
24  MR. BALDWIN:           Who was, was that? Was that the, the lawyer?
25  JUDGE ALEXANDER:       Her, her, the lawyer from public defender's

1 office. James Dimmer. No.
2 MR. BALDWIN: No, that's not him. That's--
3 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --That's the old one I used to have.
4 MR. BALDWIN: Oh.
5 JUDGE ALEXANDER: Yeah, he's coming in tonight anyways with
6 somebody else.
7 MR. BALDWIN: Yeah, I think it's Booth, right here, the blue
8 folder on your left. Because he asked for a
9 public defender.
10 JUDGE ALEXANDER: Yes. Okay, so he's coming in tonight.
11 MR. BALDWIN: Okay. Well, hey, if she's got that stuff.
12 JUDGE ALEXANDER: No, well, she ain't got the stuff. She's going
13 to have the money.
14 MR. BALDWIN: Oh, okay.
15 JUDGE ALEXANDER: Or she's going to jail, and he said, "I
16 understand if she's going to jail, and that's 17 exactly where she belongs."
18 MR. BALDWIN: Okay, okay--
19 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --What the hell's the (unintelligible)--
20 MR. BALDWIN: --Darryl Bloom.
21 (6:17 to 8:34)
22 JUDGE ALEXANDER: Alright. Yeah, with that Pollyann, I, I didn't 23 know that you were sending it out for her to 24 come in on the 13th. I thought it was for her
25 to come in tonight--

1 MR. BALDWIN: --Oh--
2 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --you know--
3 MR. BALDWIN: --okay, well--
4 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --That's fine. That's fine. Because I told
5 him-- Because here's the case, I told him
6 tonight, I said, listen, that's fine, I said, you
7 know what, let's, let's back it off until the 13th
8 of June. Do you have the 13th here--
9 MR. BALDWIN: --Mm-hmm--
10 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --Yeah. Because she's promised that she's 11 going to go to the probation department on the 12 18th of this month. I said, and if she doesn't
13 show on the 18th of this month, then I said,
14 I'm just automatically sending her to jail, and
15 he goes, "I'll agree with you then."
16 MR. BALDWIN: Okay.
17 JUDGE ALEXANDER: He said she's got nothing, nothing, no, no
18 backing then.
19 MR. BALDWIN: And the other reason I scheduled it all, first of 20 all, we were kind of booked, but secondly, I
21 also figured I sent it out on the 3rd. I didn't
22 think this would be time enough. So, I mean,
23 if, if you wanted--
24 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --I mean, no, you, you were right. I was 25 wrong. I mean, you were, you were 100

|    |                  |   |

| 1  |                  | percent right. I was just, got so many other    |
| 2  |                  | things on my plate (unintelligible)--           |
| 3  | MR. BALDWIN:     | --Yeah, and understandable.                     |
| 4  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | What about, now, isn't, is the, is the public   |
| 5  |                  | defender, or is town--                          |
| 6  | MR. BALDWIN:     | --That's--                                      |
| 7  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --prosecutor coming in tonight?                 |
| 8  | MR. BALDWIN:     | That's the 23 rd .                   |
| 9  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Okay, so, then that girl's coming in.           |
| 10 | MR. BALDWIN:     | Yes, whatever, whoever we have coming in        |
| 11 |                  | on the 23 rd .                       |
| 12 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Something happened up on-- This, alright, let   |
| 13 |                  | me, let me ask you this, the girl was coming    |
| 14 |                  | in, had (unintelligible) a half mile on Kent    |
| 15 |                  | Road.   |
| 16 | MR. BALDWIN:     | Yeah, let me--                                  |
| 17 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --Okay, and the girl that he's asking about the |
| 18 |                  | DWI, that happened up on California Hill        |
| 19 |                  | Road he said.                                   |
| 20 | MR. BALDWIN:     | (Unintelligible)?                               |
| 21 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Yeah. So, that hadn't happened, had to          |
| 22 |                  | happen out by your mother's someplace.          |
| 23 | MR. BALDWIN:     | "Place of occurrence, California Hill." She     |
| 24 |                  | never said anything. I'm, I was figuring it     |
| 25 |                  | was on the other side.                          |

| 2  | MR. BALDWIN:     | --Yeah.   |
| 3  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Over where your friend owns? Boy, you got a             |
| 4  |                  | lot of friends.   |
| 5  | MR. BALDWIN:     | I do.   |

| 7  | MR. BALDWIN:     | --I do. Let me, 23 rd , see who's coming in. |

Judge

Present:

ASSISTANT PUBLIC DEFENDER
Darryl R. Bloom, Esq.
175 North Union Street
Olean, New York 14760

COURT CLERK
Dale Baldwin

1     (0:00 to 3:20)
2     MR. BLOOM:                     --And time chargeable to the People, but I
3                                     understand Erich Weyand's here August 6th,
4                                     so, I, I guess that would be the next quickest
5                                     day we could have this matter done.
6     JUDGE ALEXANDER:             Fine with me, (unintelligible).
7     MR. BLOOM:                     Thank you.
8     JUDGE ALEXANDER:             Okay, so, the only other one you got tonight
9                                     is--
10    MR. BALDWIN:                   --I, I've got Pollyann.
11    MR. BLOOM:                     And Raymond Booth.
12    JUDGE ALEXANDER:             What's Raymond Booth for?
13    MR. BLOOM:                     Just an AUO 3rd case. I don't know if he's 14                                     cleared his license yet. But even if he did, I
15                                     don't think we could resolve it without Erich.
16                                     So, I think August 6th--
17    JUDGE ALEXANDER:             --So, we're going to put him over to August--
18    MR. BALDWIN:                   --Okay--
19    MR. BLOOM:                     --And we're probably going to put-- Dale was 20                                     saying that he hadn't received the PSI report
21                                     yet. I don't know--
22    JUDGE ALEXANDER:             --So, we're putting all three of them over to--
23    MR. BLOOM:                     --I, I think so--
24    JUDGE ALEXANDER:             --so, do you want to make this formal 25                                     announcement for all three of them so we can

|    |                  |  |
|----|------------------|--|
| 1  |                  | all leave and get out of here?                             |
| 2  | MR. BLOOM:       | Yeah.  |
| 3  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Go right ahead.  |
| 4  | MR. BLOOM:       | Well, actually, I, I should probably wait for              |
| 5  |                  | my client to (unintelligible) but, I'll let them           |
| 6  |                  | know when they get here.                                   |
| 7  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Tell your client to hurry on. I've got things to           |
| 8  |                  | do.  |
| 9  | MR. BLOOM:       | Yeah, I guess I would say that we need to                  |
| 10 |                  | adjourn both those matters to August 6 th , one |
| 11 |                  | for the PSI report, and I'll have to check the             |
| 12 |                  | status of Mr. Booth's license. If he has                   |
| 13 |                  | cleared it, he, he'll be eligible for a reduction,         |
| 14 |                  | and I guess we need the DA for that, so.                   |
| 15 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Okay.  |
| 16 | MR. BLOOM:       | August 6 th ? Thank you.                        |
| 17 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Alright.   |
| 18 | MR. BLOOM:       | Perfect. And I was telling Dale I had, I                   |
| 19 |                  | called the Moneygram thing, and I-- That                   |
| 20 |                  | thing she handed me must be her application                |
| 21 |                  | to say that there was a lost, that, I mean, she            |
| 22 |                  | must not even know her own Moneygram--                     |
| 23 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --Counselor, you--   |
| 24 | MR. BLOOM:       | --serial--   |
| 25 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --can think what you want, but your client's               |

|    |                  |   |
|----|------------------|---|
| 1  |                  | full of shit.                                     |
| 2  | MR. BLOOM:       | I think that that --                              |
| 3  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --And that's the--                                |
| 4  | MR. BLOOM:       | --I--   |
| 5  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --that's the only way that I know how to put      |
| 6  |                  | it. She's a habitual liar, she's lied in this     |
| 7  |                  | court, and I'm going to tell you right now,       |
| 8  |                  | she's going to sign that piece of paper that      |
| 9  |                  | says she doesn't have an access to the car.       |
| 10 | MR. BLOOM:       | Mm-hmm.   |
| 11 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | And the first time, and this is on record, that I |
| 12 |                  | see her driving to or from that American          |
| 13 |                  | Legion in Ellicottville, I'll call the cops       |
| 14 |                  | myself.   |
| 15 | MR. BLOOM:       | And you should.                                   |
| 16 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Because I know she perjured herself by            |
| 17 |                  | signing it.                                       |
| 18 | MR. BLOOM:       | Well, she better not be driving because--         |
| 19 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --And she's still driving to this day. She set    |
| 20 |                  | right there and says, I don't have an access to   |
| 21 |                  | the car. She's a liar. She drives every day to    |
| 22 |                  | the Legion. She drives away from the Legion       |
| 23 |                  | every day. She's there every day. I've got        |
| 24 |                  | witnesses that'll tell me she's there every day.  |
| 25 |                  | So, the first time that I ever see her, if I      |

|    |                  |   |
|----|------------------|---|
| 1  |                  | happen to drive by, and, because I don't go       |
| 2  |                  | there, but if I happen to drive by, and I see her |
| 3  |                  | getting in and out of, out of the car behind the  |
| 4  |                  | steering wheel, I will pull up alongside of her   |
| 5  |                  | and look at her. And I'll be on the phone         |
| 6  |                  | calling the cops.                                 |
| 7  | MR. BLOOM:       | Understandable.                                   |
| 8  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | So make sure she understands that.                |
| 9  | MR. BLOOM:       | I, I will drill that point home.                  |
| 10 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Because I know she's a liar. And I know           |
| 11 |                  | she's lying about it, but that's her ass, not     |
| 12 |                  | mine.   |
| 13 | MR. BLOOM:       | And--   |
| 14 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --Okay--  |
| 15 | MR. BLOOM:       | --not mine either.                                |
| 16 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Alright--   |
| 17 | MR. BLOOM:       | --Yep. Thank you.                                 |
| 18 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Yep. So hopefully your clients will hurry in.     |
| 19 | MR. BLOOM:       | Yeah, well, I'll give them a call and tell them   |
| 20 |                  | August 6 th .                          |
| 21 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Yeah, and just so, go--                           |
| 22 | MR. BLOOM:       | --Okay--  |
| 23 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --ahead and that way we can all get out of        |
| 24 |                  | here.   |
| 25 |                  |   |

| 5  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | I don't want to be screwing around with a       |
| 6  |                  | check, because then they're going screw your    |
| 7  |                  | books up.                                       |
| 8  | MR. BALDWIN:     | No, well--                                      |
| 9  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --If it does, then I'll take a check, but.      |
| 10 | MR. BALDWIN:     | (Unintelligible) it wouldn't (unintelligible).  |
| 11 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Hey, this thing's a piece of shit, ain't it?    |
| 12 | MR. BALDWIN:     | What, the (unintelligible)?                     |
| 13 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Yeah.   |
| 14 | MR. BALDWIN:     | Yeah.   |
| 15 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Ain't got any idea of a color.                  |
| 16 | MR. BALDWIN:     | Need--  |
| 17 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --Gary's using it tonight and it's              |

| 20 |                  | that's it.                                      |
| 21 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Okay, I, I couldn't get it to run tonight, so-- |
| 22 | MR. BALDWIN:     | --Oh--  |
| 23 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --I say, fuck it. We don't want to spend the    |
| 24 |                  | money for good ones.                            |
| 25 | MR. BALDWIN:     | No, I was surprised, because I told him early   |

| 3  |                  | cheapest ass one he could get. I--even I              |
| 4  |                  | thought even if he got, like, one big one--           |
| 5  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --Big (unintelligible)--                              |

| 8  |                  | and it just eats right through it. Good God,          |
| 9  |                  | the one we got at the school, you can put in a        |

| 11 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | You'll smoke a roll right out of her--                |
| 12 | MR. BALDWIN:     | --Uh-huh--  |
| 13 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --but she'll take her.                                |
| 14 | MR. BALDWIN:     | Yep.  |
| 15 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | So, right now, all we got is Swenson coming           |
| 16 |                  | in on the 28 th ?                          |
| 17 | MR. BALDWIN:     | Yeah, and, let's see, then somebody, I got to         |
| 18 |                  | let them know, April 25 th is a Wednesday. |
| 19 |                  | I've got him scheduled for--right now, he's           |
| 20 |                  | got one person, but coming in for, for his--          |
| 21 |                  | whatever the hell he does.                            |
| 22 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Yeah. I could have put this kid over to that          |
| 23 |                  | tonight, and let him get a parking ticket but I       |
| 24 |                  | didn't feel like scooting around.                     |
| 25 | MR. BALDWIN:     | It, yeah, but I liked it when he's telling you,       |

| 1  |                  | well, usually what they tell me is what, what               |
| 2  |                  | it's going to be, and I'm, like, so, you've been            |
| 3  |                  | doing this before.  |
| 4  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | You're not a virgin, huh?                                   |
| 5  | MR. BALDWIN:     | Must be not. Must be not.                                   |
| 6  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Well, that numb nuts is coming in the 28 th too, |
| 7  |                  | ain't he? The one in your hands.                            |
| 8  | MR. BALDWIN:     | For, yeah. Robert Ferrando, I don't, like                   |
| 9  |                  | CPA, at least he's scheduled to be here, but.               |
| 10 |                  | He trespassed onto Watkins' property and                    |
| 11 |                  | take his, take his own vehicle, that, which had             |
| 12 |                  | been towed by Watkins Towing.                               |
| 13 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | It doesn't say on there how much he owed                    |
| 14 |                  | Watkins Towing, does it?                                    |
| 15 | MR. BALDWIN:     | It says $270.  |
| 16 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | (Unintelligible) we fine him for trespassing, it            |
| 17 |                  | isn't $270. He's going to make a money order               |
| 18 |                  | out to Watkins Towing, and we'll send it to                 |
| 19 |                  | him, and then pay the trespass charge.                      |
| 20 | MR. BALDWIN:     | Watkins, he towed the vehicle from Monroe                   |
| 21 |                  | Street in Ellicottville to his house for 270                |
| 22 |                  | bucks.  |
| 23 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | (Unintelligible) the money, huh?                            |
| 24 | MR. BALDWIN:     | His-- That's excessive, but I guess you can                 |
| 25 |                  | charge what you want.                                       |

(Colloquy, March 14, 2012)

|    |                  |   |

| 1  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | You know, outside of John's Collision, he is      |

| 3  | MR. BALDWIN:     | Yeah.   |
| 4  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | You know, Wade's gone.                            |
| 5  | MR. BALDWIN:     | Yeah. Yeah, and I, I did dumb right on the        |
| 6  |                  | first day of Brian's funeral. I was going up      |
| 7  |                  | over the hill, and made a right there to go over  |
| 8  |                  | Caylor Hill, and it was slippery, snowing that    |
| 9  |                  | day, but just as I broke over the hill, there was |
| 10 |                  | a car having trouble coming up, and I let off     |
| 11 |                  | the brake just enough to, to maneuver around,     |
| 12 |                  | and she started sliding, my, the van did, and I   |
| 13 |                  | went, made, started to make a left but went       |
| 14 |                  | right into the snow bank. And she stopped         |
| 15 |                  | before it went on over, thank God, otherwise      |
| 16 |                  | those trees were coming pretty quick. But,        |
| 17 |                  | when I called AAA, I said, you know, "Who         |
| 18 |                  | do you have coming?" I said, "It better be        |
| 19 |                  | John's Collision," and, yeah it was. So, John     |
| 20 |                  | come up. All he did, had, had his little tow      |
| 21 |                  | rope, the little stretchy things, hooked onto it, |
| 22 |                  | backed out, and away we went.                     |
| 23 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Do you know him?                                  |
| 24 | MR. BALDWIN:     | John? Just, just for the few times I've needed    |
| 25 |                  | assistance from him. I don't know, then I had     |

(Colloquy, March 14, 2012)

3 bent two rims, and his boys got them, put
4 them on, but that's really the extent that I
5 know him. I don't know if anybody-- I don't
6 know, everybody's got complaints, you know,
7 good and bad about anybody, but I don't
8 know.
9 JUDGE ALEXANDER: Yeah. You know, somebody's not going to 10 like him because he didn't kiss their ass the 11 way they wanted it kissed, you know. Your
12 mom was down here when I came down.
13 MR. BALDWIN: Oh yeah, she come down, and she had to get
14 copies of something--
15 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --(unintelligible)--
16 MR. BALDWIN: --I don't know what--
17 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --some, trying to find a phone number.
18 MR. BALDWIN: Oh yeah, because some, somebody sent their 19 money order--
20 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --And didn't sign it.
21 MR. BALDWIN: And didn't sign it. Well, didn't sign it, but 22 then signed the back of it where she signs it.
23 JUDGE ALEXANDER: Oh, God.
24 MR. BALDWIN: So, and that reminded me, we've got, the 28th
25 we've got quite a few. Wasn't that Mike

| 12 | MR. BALDWIN:     | Mm-hmm.   |
| 13 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Alright, you gotta let me have that case then.    |
| 14 |                  | Jesus, she-- I think she just called me and said  |
| 15 |                  | that-- Didn't she call me when I was in           |

| 20 |                  | me. 3/14/2012, these people should be here,       |

2     JUDGE ALEXANDER:       --and if you can't afford one, the court will
3                               appoint you one. Do you want an attorney?
4     MR. FERRANDO:         I have an attorney, yes.
5     JUDGE ALEXANDER:       (Unintelligible).
6     MR. FERRANDO:         Scott Perrino [sic], Perrinto [sic].
7     JUDGE ALEXANDER:       Okay. When do you want to set up court
8                               night, Dale?
9     MR. BALDWIN:          We got Wednesday, April 11th or April 25th.
10    JUDGE ALEXANDER:       People coming (unintelligible). So, get a hold 11                               of your attorney.
12    MR. FERRANDO:         Okay, April 25th?
13    JUDGE ALEXANDER:       At 7 o'clock. You got copies of all of these 14                               papers to give to him?
15    MR. FERRANDO:         Yes, sir.
16    JUDGE ALEXANDER:       Okay.
17    MR. FERRANDO:         Is it just like a ticket you pay?
18    JUDGE ALEXANDER:       Yeah.
19    MR. FERRANDO:         Can't I just pay it and we're over with?
20    JUDGE ALEXANDER:       Well, yeah. I don't know why you're, why
21                               you want to have an attorney, but--

2     JUDGE ALEXANDER:        --under the Penal Law for trespass. You
3                                   understand that? I'm not saying you did. I'm 4                                   just saying you're charged with it.

5     MS. FITZGERALD:         Yes, yes.

6     JUDGE ALEXANDER:        Okay, you have a right to have an attorney at 7                                   this proceedings and any proceedings
8                                   hereafter. Do you wish to have an attorney?

9     MS. FITZGERALD:         If I need one, I guess.

10    JUDGE ALEXANDER:        Okay.

11    MS. FITZGERALD:         (Unintelligible) will probably provide me with 12                                   one.

13    JUDGE ALEXANDER:        Okay. How do you plead to this then?

14    MS. FITZGERALD:         Well, I was just serving people, Your Honor.

15    JUDGE ALEXANDER:        Yeah.

16    MS. FITZGERALD:         And I didn't-- I wasn't doing anything. I
17                                   mean, I just went up on the steps and did what 18                                   I was told.

19    JUDGE ALEXANDER:        Mm-hmm.

20    MS. FITZGERALD:         I served the paper and, well, she, Mrs. Green
21                                   come to the door and she had the door opened
22                                   and she yelled for her husband, so I see the 23                                   door was open, and I put the paper in, and I
24                                   said, "You're served." Then I started to go
25                                   because I heard him yell, and then he started

2 to come after me, Mr. Green.
3 JUDGE ALEXANDER: Mm-hmm.
4 MS. FITZGERALD: So, then I got in the car and I left. I didn't--
5 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --What, what papers were you serving?
6 MS. FITZGERALD: I was serving-- They were some papers for the 7 back lot rent.
8 JUDGE ALEXANDER: That they owned rent?
9 MS. FITZGERALD: Yes.
10 JUDGE ALEXANDER: The Greens did?
11 MS. FITZGERALD: Well, it was his, it was his son, but that was,
12 for his son-in-law. But that was the last place
13 that, that, that his son-in-law had lived, so, the 14 office told me to take it there, and that's 15 exactly what I did. I wasn't there to do any 16 harm.
17 JUDGE ALEXANDER: You didn't stay there or any--
18 MS. FITZGERALD: --Oh, no, no. Ms.-- She was with me at--
19 UNKNOWN FEMALE: --Right. We went there once--
20 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --How was (unintelligible). Who are you,
21 ma'am?
22 UNKNOWN FEMALE: Oh, I'm her next-door neighbor. I go with her
23 when she goes out of town because it's--
24 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --Where are you from?
25 UNKNOWN FEMALE: We live in--

4 MS. RUSSELL: No.

5 RUSSELL'S MOTHER: She'd only had her license two weeks, judge,
6 and she was out here, and not familiar with
7 the roads. She's tell-- She told us the whole

9 JUDGE ALEXANDER: Oh, okay. Okay. So, you just starting 10 driving?

11 MS. RUSSELL: Yes, I got my license August 3rd.

12 JUDGE ALEXANDER: Okay. This is unorthodox. I can do it. I'm

6 one, the court will appoint you one. Do you

8 DEFENDANT: Yes.

9 JUDGE ALEXANDER: Okay, How do you plead?

10 DEFENDANT'S MOTHER: He said he did that, this, and he knows
11 (unintelligible)--

12 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --Who are you, ma'am?

13 DEFENDANT'S MOTHER: I am his mom, and I really didn't want to have 14 to have the expense of a lawyer. He knows
15 he's done wrong and is moving back into the 16 house with myself and my boyfriend. I don't 17 know, I texted him about 2:00 that night, he 18 was home. He was behaving himself at that 19 hour at, 5, 4:00.

20 JUDGE ALEXANDER: How old are you?

21 DEFENDANT: Twenty three, (unintelligible).

22 DEFENDANT'S MOTHER: You know, I, I try to keep a good eye on him.
23 He's got a good job. He's been working
24 every day. He's actually borrowing my
25 mom's vehicle at this time, using that, and

2 he doesn't have a vehicle, because he made
3 the big, the big mess up. I mean, a phone call,
4 came home, and he says, "Mom, I really
5 f-ed up." I mean, my, my boyfriend, Hank,
6 came down and spoke with the officers and 7 (unintelligible) and--
8 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --Would you other folks step out for a second,
9 and close the door?
10 UNKNOWN MAN: Yeah.
11 DEFENDANT'S MOTHER: We're trying to keep a, you know, a good eye
12 on him and a couple other boys his age.
13 JUDGE ALEXANDER: Don't I know you somehow?
14 DEFENDANT'S MOTHER: Yes.
15 UNKNOWN MAN: I believe so. How are you sir? Real good.
16 JUDGE ALEXANDER: I recognize the name.
17 UNKNOWN MAN: Yeah. Well, I did quite a few years with your 18 dad.
19 JUDGE ALEXANDER: Yup.

2     JUDGE ALEXANDER:        Okay, so, you are?

3     MS. WULFF:               Donna Wulff.

4     JUDGE ALEXANDER:        And you own this dog?

5     MS. WULFF:               Yes. From when we were here last time, we
6                                have installed an electric fence. So, if the dog
7                                cannot leave the yard, on 11/1 at 3 P.M., I was 8                                not even home, and when I leave the house,
9                                my dog is chained. I called the dog warden
10                              and told her that I wasn't home that day, and 11                              there's no possible way that my dog could 12                              have been anywhere, and the last two tickets,
13                              there had been some strays that were running
14                              around. When she gave us, the, them other
15                              two dates--

16    MR. HEBDON:              --Yeah--

17    MS. WULFF:               --and this--

18    MR. HEBDON:              --the same day she--

19    MS. WULFF:               --guy--

20    MR. HEBDON:              --dropped this off--

21    MS. WULFF:               --came to the door and asked if we had, had,
22                              you know, I had lost dogs, and I said, "No,"
23                              and he said, "Well, there's two dogs running 24                              in the road, and they're quite little," you
25                              know, "I thought maybe they were yours,"

|    |                  |   |
|----|------------------|---|
| 1  |                  | and I said, "No." Well, the next day I came     |
| 2  |                  | home, and there, the lost dog had been sitting  |
| 3  |                  | next to my dog's dog house, just sitting there. |
| 4  |                  | So, I don't know if those were the dogs that    |
| 5  |                  | these people thought. I have no idea--          |
| 6  | MR. HEBDON:      | --She's got an electric fence--                 |
| 7  | MS. WULFF:       | --but--   |
| 8  | MR. HEBDON:      | --she--   |
| 9  | MS. WULFF:       | --there's no way--                              |
| 10 | MR. HEBDON:      | --I mean--                                      |
| 11 | MS. WULFF:       | --that the dog can leave--                      |
| 12 | MR. HEBDON:      | --she can't get across--                        |
| 13 | MS. WULFF:       | --my property--                                 |
| 14 | MR. HEBDON:      | --it.   |
| 15 | MS. WULFF:       | Can't go, can only go--                         |
| 16 | MR. HEBDON:      | --It's been--                                   |
| 17 | MS. WULFF:       | --can't even get to the end--                   |
| 18 | MR. HEBDON:      | --it's been installed for a while now, so--     |
| 19 | MS. WULFF:       | --of the driveway--                             |
| 20 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --What do you mean by electric fence, the       |
| 21 |                  | collar?   |
| 22 | MR. HEBDON:      | Yeah--  |
| 23 | MS. WULFF:       | --Yeah, installed into the ground. So, but the  |
| 24 |                  | dog--   |
| 25 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | ---So, these--                                  |

(People v Donna Wulff, January 11, 2012)

|    |                  |   |
|----|------------------|---|
| 1  | MS. WULFF:       | --goes halfway down--                           |
| 2  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --so, these--are you saying that these people   |
| 3  |                  | are assuming that the dogs they're swerving     |
| 4  |                  | for are your dogs?                              |
| 5  | MS. WULFF:       | I believe they're not. I only have one dog.     |
| 6  |                  | Now there was two dogs that were--              |
| 7  | MR. HEBDON:      | --Yeah, there--                                 |
| 8  | MS. WULFF:       | --lost--  |
| 9  | MR. HEBDON:      | --was two--                                     |
| 10 | MS. WULFF:       | --in the neighborhood--                         |
| 11 | MR. HEBDON:      | --two strays--                                  |
| 12 | MS. WULFF:       | --but I don't know--                            |
| 13 | MR. HEBDON:      | --come on, boy.                                 |
| 14 | MS. WULFF:       | I don't know. I called the dog warden to        |
| 15 |                  | speak with her but, she's like, she's taking up |
| 16 |                  | (unintelligible)--                              |
| 17 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --What color's your dog?                        |
| 18 | MS. WULFF:       | Brown.  |
| 19 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | It's got white on it?                           |
| 20 | MS. WULFF:       | A little bit under the neck area.               |
| 21 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Well, it's the color the dog that was--         |
| 22 | MS. WULFF:       | --There was two dogs, and only--                |
| 23 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --what colors were they--                       |
| 24 | MS. WULFF:       | --I only seen--I don't know the two colors, but |
| 25 |                  | the one color was more of a whitish color--     |

(People v Donna Wulff, January 11, 2012)

|    |                  |  |
|----|------------------|--|
| 1  | MR. HEBDON:      | --okay--   |
| 2  | MS. WULFF:       | --that was sitting next to our dog's--           |
| 3  | MR. HEBDON:      | --chill out--                                    |
| 4  | MS. WULFF:       | --dog house when I got home. I pulled in--       |
| 5  | MR. HEBDON:      | --knock it off--                                 |
| 6  | MS. WULFF:       | --the driveway. So, I'm totally confused--       |
| 7  | MR. HEBDON:      | --Hey--  |
| 8  | MS. WULFF:       | --but, we're here.                               |
| 9  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Okay. Give us a phone number that you can        |
| 10 |                  | get, we can get a hold of you for.               |
| 11 | MS. WULFF:       | 716-225-5706.                                    |
| 12 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Okay, I'm going to get a hold of the dog         |
| 13 |                  | control officer. If she wants to pursue this,    |
| 14 |                  | she can have these people come in--              |
| 15 | MS. WULFF:       | --Okay--   |
| 16 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --and say it's your dog.                         |
| 17 | MS. WULFF:       | Alright. Well, the, the last tickets were, like, |
| 18 |                  | in August or whatever, and then we got these     |
| 19 |                  | other ones in November. So, I don't              |
| 20 |                  | understand where, if my dog was, you know,       |
| 21 |                  | out there running around, why there's such--     |
| 22 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --Well--   |
| 23 | MS. WULFF:       | --a lapse in tickets. Anyway, my dog can no      |
| 24 |                  | longer, since we were here last, can leave our   |
| 25 |                  | yard. So, I just--                               |

|    |                  |  |
|----|------------------|--|
| 1  | MR. HEBDON:      | --Yeah--   |
| 2  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --So, obviously, so, what you're, you're         |
| 3  |                  | telling me is it's not my dog. It's somebody     |
| 4  |                  | else's dog, but--                                |
| 5  | MS. WULFF:       | --Must be--                                      |
| 6  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | --they're saying it's your dog.                  |
| 7  | MS. WULFF:       | Right.   |
| 8  | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | So, then I want these people to come into        |
| 9  |                  | court, since they were willing to put their      |
| 10 |                  | names on the top of this paper and say they're   |
| 11 |                  | your dogs, I want them to come in and look       |
| 12 |                  | you in the eye and prove to it that your dogs.   |
| 13 | MS. WULFF:       | Okay.  |
| 14 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | So, I'll have the dog control officer on,        |
| 15 |                  | Dale'll get a hold of the dog control officer,   |
| 16 |                  | and I can get a hold of you when we want you     |
| 17 |                  | to come back in.                                 |
| 18 | MS. WULFF:       | Okay, great.                                     |
| 19 | MR. HEBDON:      | Okay.  |
| 20 | JUDGE ALEXANDER: | Alright.   |
| 21 | MS. WULFF:       | Thank you kindly.                                |
| 22 | MR. HEBDON:      | Okay. Yeah, she can, tell her that she can       |
| 23 |                  | come by and, the, the fence is visible. I mean,  |
| 24 |                  | she can see the dog's got a collar on and stuff. |
| 25 |                  | She--  |

(People v Donna Wulff, January 11, 2012)

1 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --Well, you know, what--
2 MR. HEBDON: --she's, she was, she's been there. She knows
3 the dog's in there. Either the dog's on the 4 chain or she's got her collar on--
5 MS. WULFF: --Yeah, when she dropped the tickets off, I
6 wasn't--
7 MR. HEBDON: --but, yeah--
8 MS. WULFF: --even home, so--
9 MR. HEBDON: --she--
10 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --yeah--
11 MS. WULFF: --I don't know--
12 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --it sounded to me like the people are saying
13 they're your dogs. I guess I just, I want those 14 people to--as long as they're willing to--
15 MR. HEBDON: --Come on--
16 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --write those statements, I'll--
17 MR. HEBDON: --what's your problem--
18 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --(unintelligible) people--
19 MR. HEBDON: --you're going to act up--
20 JUDGE ALEXANDER: --I, I want to be able to come in and look you
21 in the eye and say they're your dogs.
22 MS. WULFF: As long as they--I'm telling the truth--
23 MR. HEBDON: --Yeah, okay--
24 MS. WULFF: --I don't--like I said, last time we were here I
25 don't know if somebody--

| 2  | MS. WULFF:       | --I have no idea--                              |
| 3  | MR. HEBDON:      | --I'll get out of your hair now--               |
| 4  | MS. WULFF:       | --but, like, when we first moved there, you     |
| 5  |                  | know, obviously the dog was exploring the       |

| 7  |                  | here, I was, like, we got to do something. So,  |

Re: File Nos. 2012/R-0310 and 2013/R-0045

Dear Judge Alexander:

I received your written request for an adjournment of your appearance to give testimony before a Commission referee by mail on Thursday, September 15, 2014, less than twenty-four hours prior to your scheduled appearance. I have attempted since then to reach you by telephone. You have not returned my calls.

In your letter you advised me that your health prevents you from appearing before the Commission, however, it is my understanding that you continue to preside on your scheduled court nights.

I am writing now to inform you that I will be rescheduling your testimony to take place within the next three weeks. I am willing to arrange for your appearance to take place in Buffalo, if that will be more convenient for you.

Honorable Randy Alexander

September 29, 2014

Please be advised that your appearance is not optional. A failure to appear as directed may itself constitute judicial misconduct and be the basis for public discipline.

Please call me forthwith to discuss the matter.

Very truly yours,

John J. Postel
Deputy Administrator

Re: File Nos. 2012/R-0310 and 2013/R-0045

Dear Judge Alexander:

I received your written request for an adjournment of your appearance to give testimony before a Commission referee by mail on Thursday, September 15, 2014, less than twenty-four hours prior to your scheduled appearance. I have attempted since then to reach you by telephone. You have not returned my calls.

In your letter you advised me that your health prevents you from appearing before the Commission, however, it is my understanding that you continue to preside on your scheduled court nights.

I am writing now to inform you that I will be rescheduling your testimony to take place within the next three weeks. I am willing to arrange for your appearance to take place in Buffalo, if that will be more convenient for you.

Honorable Randy Alexander

September 29, 2014

Please be advised that your appearance is not optional. A failure to appear as directed may itself constitute judicial misconduct and be the basis for public discipline.

Please call me forthwith to discuss the matter.

MS. RESTON: Good afternoon. My name is Margaret Reston. I have been designated by the Commission as Referee to hear the testimony of Judge Randy Alexander. Today is November 13, 2014, and the time is 1:40. Judge Alexander is not present, but can everyone else who is present in this room please place your appearances on the record?

MR. DUGUAY: David Duguay, Senior Attorney, Commission on Judicial Conduct.

MS. MANGAN: Vanessa Mangan, Investigator, Commission on Judicial Conduct.

MR. DUGUAY: Okay. Ms. Reston, if I could make a record, please?

MS. RESTON: That would be fine.

MR. DUGUAY: Okay. We are here today for a scheduled investigative appearance for the Honorable Randy Alexander, the Mansfield Town Court Justice. I'd like to mark a variety of documents for the record, and then make a, an identifying statement, if I could?

MS. RESTON: That would be fine.

MR. DUGUAY: I'm going to mark as Exhibit number 1 a ten-page document. It is a letter dated August 11, 2014. It's addressed to Judge Alexander at the address of 7660 Hollister Hill in 1.

STATE COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

(Hon. Randy Alexander)

1 Little Valley, New York. It is the address listed in
2 the OCA record as the address of the Mansfield
3 Town Court. We believe, however, it is Judge
4 Alexander's personal residence. This letter, this ten-
5 page letter, was sent and signed by Mr., excuse me,
6 signed by J. Postel, John Postel, the Deputy
7 Administrator of the Rochester Office. And
8 essentially it notifies the judge that there would be 9 an investigative appearance originally scheduled for 10 September 4, 2014. Subsequently a letter was sent
11 to the same address, dated August 14, 2014. It's a
12 one-page letter that had rescheduled Judge
13 Alexander's investigative appearance to the date of 14 September 16th. Judge Alexander did respond. He
15 sent a document, which I'm marking as Commission
16 Exhibit number 3, as a one-page document that was 17 received by the Commission on September 15, 2014;
18 hand-dated by Judge Alexander, 9/10/14; and signed
19 Honorable Randy Alexander, requesting an 20 adjournment for the investigative appearance until
21 November "because of health reasons." In response,
22 marked as Commission Exhibit number 4, as the 23 letter dated September 29, 2014. It's a two-page
24 letter signed by John J. Postel, Deputy
25 Administrator, confirming to Judge Alexander that

(Hon. Randy Alexander)

1 the request for the adjournment was received;
2 explaining to Judge Alexander in paragraph two, the
3 understanding that the court, that was, that the judge
4 was continuing to preside over scheduled court
5 nights; and asking the judge to call forthwith to 6 discuss the matter. Furthermore, in the first
7 paragraph of Exhibit 4, Mr. Postel confirms his 8 attempts to reach Judge Alexander several times by 9 telephone, and states that "You have not returned my 10 calls." Again, the date of that letter was September
11 29, 2014. Commission Exhibit number 5 is a return
12 receipt for that 9/29/14 letter. The return receipt
13 appears to bear the signature of Randy Alexander.
14 Subsequently a letter was sent out on October 3,
15 2014. It's signed and sent by John J. Postel, Deputy
16 Administrator; I'll mark as Commission Exhibit
17 number 7 now. The October 3rd letter is the first
18 letter now that is being sent to the actual courthouse
19 address of 7691 Toad Hollow Road, Little Valley,
20 New York. The October 3rd letter does contain as an 21 attachment the September 29, 2014, letter.

22 (Commission Exhibits 1 through 5 were marked for identification)

23 MS. RESTON: Mm-hmm--

24 MR. DUGUAY: --Okay. I'm going to go
25 off the record for just one moment, please.

(OFF THE RECORD)

MR. DUGUAY: I believe we're back on the record. I want to make a correction, I believe.

Exhibit number 4 is a letter dated September 29, 2014, addressed to the Honorable Randy Alexander at the Hollister Hill Road address. Again, that's a two-page letter signed by John J. Postel, Deputy Administrator. Exhibit number 5 is the return receipt for that letter of September 29, 2014. It bears, or appears to bear, the signature of Randy Alexander. Exhibit number 6 now is actually going to be a letter dated October 3, 2014. This is the first letter that's addressed to 7691 Toad Hollow Road, and to the Honorable Randy Alexander. This is the address we believe to be the actual address of the Mansfield Town Court. Attached to the October 3rd letter is the prior letter of September 29, 2014. There's a certified return receipt for that letter of October 3rd, which bears a signature that appears to be a Betty Jane, and it looks like Horning, H-O-R-N-I-N-G. That's being marked as Exhibit 7. I'm marking as Exhibit 8 a letter dated October 14, 2014. It's a two-page letter signed by John J. Postel, Deputy Administrator. The letter of October 14th, which is Exhibit 8, indicates that a letter had been

(Hon. Randy Alexander)

1 sent on September 29th requesting a response. It sets
2 a new date for the investigative appearance, which
3 would be today, Thursday, November 13, 2014, at
4 1:00 P.M. at the Commission's Rochester office, 400
5 Andrews Street, Suite 700, Rochester, New York.
6 Furthermore, in the letter of October 14th, it requests
7 that the judge contact, either by letter or phone, Mr.
8 Postel or myself, David M. Duguay, with any 9 questions. Attached to the Exhibit 8, which is the 10 letter of October 14th, is the original letter sent
11 October, or August 11, 2014, which is a ten-page
12 letter informing the judge of the subject matter of the 13 investigative appearance. Finally, Exhibit number 9
14 is a return receipt for the October 14th letter. It bears
15 a signature, which appears to be Mirro, M-I-R-R-O,
16 initial C, last name, it appears to be K-R-I-S.
17 Currently it's approximately 1:50 or so at this time.
18 Prior to going on the record I did attempt to contact
19 Judge Alexander at his personal number. That was 20 at approximately 1:19. There was no answer. When 21 I placed the phone call, I did leave a message with 22 my name requesting a response. I have heard no
23 response as of this time. I was able to call and speak
24 with the court clerk for Mansfield Town Court, Dale
25 Baldwin. Mr. Baldwin confirmed the number I had

5.

STATE COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT
400 Andrews Street, Suite 700
Rochester, NY 14604

(Hon. Randy Alexander)

1 called was an accurate number for the judge. It was
2 his personal cell phone number. Also, Mr. Baldwin
3 did confirm that court was held last night and Judge
4 Alexander did preside in Mansfield Town Court on
5 November 12, 2014. The number that I did place a
6 call to is area code 716-498-4747. So, subsequent to 7 the judge's communication requesting an 8 adjournment to November, phone calls have been 9 made to the judge, placed to a number that we
10 believe to be an accurate number. We have received
11 no response. We've received no written response or 12 request from the judge up until today, and again,
13 we've had no response as of 1:50. We're pushing an 14 hour beyond the time the judge was scheduled to be 15 here.

16 (Commission Exhibits 6 through 9 were marked for identification)

17 MS. RESTON: Anything further, counsel?

18 MR. DUGUAY: I have nothing further.

19 MS. RESTON: (Unintelligible) this
20 investigative appearance has, is expiring, or 21 terminating, and it is 10 of 2:00.

22 MR. DUGUAY: Actually, one last-- For the 23 record, I'd like to thank you, Ms. Reston, for being
24 present.

25 MS. RESTON: I'm happy to do that.
