Miguel Maisonet, Senior Clerk and FTR Operator

1 MS. ZAHNER: Good morning, Mr. Belluck
2 and members of the Commission. This is the oral
3 argument in the Matter of Richard Miller, II, a Judge 4 of the Family Court. Judge Miller is appearing with 5 his attorneys, Mr. DerOhannesian and Ms. Scalise.
6 Ms. Cenci and Mr. Pedrotty are appearing for the 7 Commission.

8 MR. BELLUCK: Good morning. In the 9 Matter of Richard H. Miller, this is the oral argument 10 with respect to the referee's report, a determination 11 of whether misconduct has occurred and if so, what 12 an appropriate sanction shall be.

13 Counsel will each have 30 minutes for their 14 argument. Counsel for the Commission may reserve 15 a portion of her time for rebuttal. After the initial 16 presentations, the judge may, if he wishes, make a 17 presentation to the Commission not to exceed ten 18 minutes. Counsel for the respondent may reserve 19 time to speak after the respondent, but prior to the 20 rebuttal. The judge and counsel are subject to 21 questioning by the Commission at any time during 22 their presentation.

23 I want to underscore to counsel that the 24 argument should be confined to the record. We do 25 not want you providing us with information that's

1 outside the record and any statements outside the 2 record will be disregarded. I also want to remind 3 counsel that objections and those things are not 4 permitted during this proceeding.

5 You will notice that there are lights on the 6 podium to indicate your time. The green light means 7 you may speak. A blinking green light means there 8 are two minutes left. The yellow light means there's 9 one-minute left, and the red light means you should 10 stop.

11 I want to remind everyone in the room to 12 please silence your cell phones, electronic devices 13 and computers, place them in airplane mode and 14 disable your Wi-Fi connection to prevent interfering 15 with the recording of the proceeding.

16 I also want to note for the record that two 17 members of the Commission, Ms. Yeboah and 18 myself, are both participating from Albany in the 19 argument by videoconference. If there are any 20 technical difficulties, we will pause the argument if 21 appropriate and the time will not be accounted – 22 counted against your presentation. Are you ready to 23 proceed, Ms. Cenci?

24 MS. CENCI: Yes, I am, Mr. Belluck. Thank 25 you.

1 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Excuse me. Ms.
2 Scalise has a housekeeping matter she wanted to 3 address.

4 MS. SCALISE: If I may?

5 MR. BELLUCK: Go ahead. Go ahead.

6 MS. SCALISE: I am sorry. I'd like to, like, 7 stand at the podium so you can see me. Okay. So, the 8 issue of concern is that the argument has been 9 videotaped. And under the confidentiality policies of 10 the Commission as well as the Rules under Section – 11 Judiciary Law Section 45, we have a concern that if 12 it's requested, the argument is requested, there is a 13 civil proceeding that is collateral to this and there 14 have been many requests in discovery. So, our 15 concern, and we ask that you address this, is would 16 this argument and portions of it be available if it was 17 subpoenaed or if there was some other requests made 18 once the proceedings are complete?

19 MR. BELLUCK: I am going to ask Mr.
20 Lindner to address that. I think he may be the best 21 person to appease, if he's comfortable doing that.

22 MR. LINDNER: Thank you, Chairman
23 Belluck. As the Commission members know, all 24 Commission proceedings are confidential pursuant to 25 Judiciary Law Section 45 and with only limited

1 exceptions of matters that appear before you may be 2 disclosed. If there is a public determination in this 3 case, what is available to the public is the record upon 4 which the Commission's determination is made. That 5 transmission is made to the Court of Appeals pursuant 6 to statute and is available to anyone. It will include a 7 transcript of today's oral argument, which is made 8 public in every case. We have never sent copies of 9 the videotaped arguments to the Court and we do not 10 consider them to be part of the public record.

11 MR. BELLUCK: Ms. Scalise, does that satisfy 12 your concern?

13 MS. SCALISE: May I have just a moment?
14 Yes. Thank you very much.

15 MR. BELLUCK: Okay. Ms. Cenci, can you 16 now proceed, please?

17 MS. CENCI: Thank you. I would like to 18 reserve five minutes of my time for rebuttal.

19 MR. BELLUCK: Okay.

20 MS. CENCI: Members of the Commission,
21 based upon the referee's findings and respondent's 22 prior disciplinary record, he should be removed from 23 office. Respondent has concealed tens of thousands 24 of dollars in extra judicial income from federal and 25 state tax authorities and on his public financial

1 disclosures. —

2 JUDGE MILLER: — I have a question. I just 3 wanted some clarification. I just want to make certain 4 I am correct. This proceeding got started because of 5 the complaints of, I may butcher the names, Ms.
6 Gallagher and Ms. Kar — Mr. Kachadourian, correct?

7 MS. CENCI: Incorrect, Judge. They were not 8 complainants to the Commission.

9 JUDGE MILLER: So, it got started because of 10 the complaints they made to some authority, to OCA
11 or to the Inspection General? I guess my question is it 12 originated because of the alleged improprieties that 13 they allegedly witnessed or experienced, correct?

14 MS. CENCI: Well, that was, that was one 15 complaint that initiated one of the investigations that 16 there were improper remarks made to those 17 individuals by the judge. —

18 JUDGE MILLER: — But what else started — at 19 the initial stage there was another complaint? Was 20 the, was the failure to report in the tax returns part of 21 the initial complaint?

22 MS. CENCI: Yes. That is not in the record
23 before you. But, the answer is yes.

24 JUDGE MILLER: Okay. Because one of my 25 concerns is it appears as if the referee made a finding

1 that neither of these people were credible. And, that 2 you are not disputing that finding. So, a good part, 3 and I read the entire transcript, a good part of these 4 hearings related to rather salacious testimony by these 5 two folks and the rebuttal. The referee said he found
6 neither of them credible and the Commission
7 apparently agrees because it's not disputing that. It's 8 not asking us to charge this judge with that. So, if we,
9 I am trying to think of the number of days of hearings 10 related to those charges and that's now out of the 11 picture, correct?

12 MS. CENCI: It's not out of the picture. You 13 have –

14 JUDGE MILLER: – Cause you are not trying 15 to change – you agree with the referee's finding that 16 those two witnesses are not credible, correct?

17 MS. CENCI: We disagree with the referee.
18 We continue to believe that the witnesses were 19 credible; that they corroborated each other and were 20 corroborated by other witnesses. –

21 JUDGE MILLER: – Alright, then I don't – but 22 you are not asking, you are not asking us to overturn 23 that finding?

24 MS. CENCI: We recognize that deference is 25 ordinarily accorded to the referee on credibility

1 determinations. –

2 JUDGE MILLER: – So if –

3 MS. CENCI: – You have the ability
4 yourselves to make your own –

5 JUDGE MILLER: – Right. –

6 MS. CENCI: – Credibility determinations and 7 you are not bound by the referee –

8 JUDGE MILLER: – I know that –

9 MS. CENCI: – In that respect. –

10 JUDGE MILLER: – But what I guess my 11 related question is, is the primary witness, can I, Mr.
12 K. I am going to call him, relating to the picture, so if 13 he's been found to be not credible, if you are not 14 disputing that main finding, but yet you are seeking 15 discipline with respect to his alleged credibility with 16 respect to the picture. Do I understand that correctly?

18 JUDGE MILLER: Okay.

19 MS. CENCI: That is the only area of 20 credibility that we are asking you to disaffirm the 21 referee on. And that is because unlike the other 22 allegations, Mr. Kachadourian was corroborated by 23 another witness, a completely disinterested witness, 24 Ms. L [REDACTED], the person depicted in the photograph.
25 And the referee apparently credited her testimony.

1 She established that there was in fact such a 2 photograph. Mr. Kachadourian did not fabricate the 3 existence of that photograph. And the other reason 4 we are asking you to disaffirm the referee in that 5 respect is because he made a clear error of law in 6 failing to apply the missing witness charge to 7 respondent for his failure to call Mr. Iannone, the 8 source of the photograph, in his defense.

9 JUDGE MILLER: I was curious, why didn't 10 the Commission call Mr. Iannone?

11 MS. CENCI: We did not believe that he would 12 testify truthfully.

13 JUDGE MILLER: And that's based upon the 14 – you took his deposition – so you didn't call him 15 because he would, he would "tell the truth" and the 16 truth would be adverse to your position? But you 17 thought that he would be lying when he "told the 18 truth?" That's why you didn't call him?

19 MS. CENCI: We did not believe him to be a 20 credible witness. –

21 JUDGE MILLER: – Okay.

22 MS. CENCI. That is why we did not call him.
23 And that's actually the inference that you can take 24 against respondent –

25 JUDGE MILLER: – Okay. –

1 MS. CENCI: – Is that Mr. Iannone could not 2 honestly support respondent's position in this case and 3 that is the case law as the Court of Appeals has 4 articulated it with respect to the missing witness 5 charge.

6 JUDGE MILLER: Okay.

7 MS. CENCI: So, yes, we are asking that you
8 disaffirm the referee in that regard. That you find that 9 that allegation was sustained. If you find respondent 10 did that, committed that misconduct, you must remove 11 him from office. There is no question about that.
12 However, even if you don't sustain that allegation, the 13 other misconduct as shown in this record and as found 14 by the referee supports his removal.

15 JUDGE MILLER: Could I ask a – I apologize
16 for asking so much questions. The case intrigued me 17 as I read the record is if a judge asks his secretary to 18 send a note inquiring about the health of his uncle in 19 Florida, is that a violation of judicial ethics?

20 MS. CENCI: It may be. That's not what we 21 have here.

22 JUDGE MILLER: No, I am just – any, any 23 personal chore that a judge's personal secretary does 24 is potentially a violation of judicial ethics?

25 MS. CENCI: Well, I think it's a question of 1 degree. But the Commission has said, in matter of 2 Brigantti-Hughes, you know, this is not the proper use

3 of judicial personnel. They are not supposed to be –

4 JUDGE MILLER: – Because here we have a
5 judge who's apparently owed money from his prior 6 practice. For whatever reason he doesn't have his 7 former secretary write the letter. I think he 8 acknowledged that he asked her, or I think he may 9 have said that she volunteered and then she sends the 10 letter making inquiry about money that's owed and –

11 MS. CENCI: – It's not a letter making inquiry.
12 It's a bogus letter purporting to come from someone 13 who isn't there. It's a letter purporting to come from 14 respondent's former law office secretary. And, in the 15 letter respondent had his chamber secretary prepare, 16 he has her do it as though it's coming from the former 17 law office secretary, Dear Mr. Estate Fiduciary –

18 JUDGE MILLER: – So is, is –

19 MS. CENCI: – Please sign these checks so I 20 can get paid.

21 JUDGE MILLER: Right. So, is the violation
22 that she sent the letter or is the violation that she wrote 23 the letter as if she was his former secretary?

24 MS. CENCI: The violation is that respondent 25 impermissibly had his chamber secretary assist him in

1 collecting a legal fee –

2 JUDGE MILLER: – Okay.

3 MS. CENCI: And, you know what, respondent 4 was previously censured for similar conflicts between 5 his judicial role and his private practice of law. He 6 didn't get the message. They're asking you to censure
7 him again. He didn't get it the first time. He did it 8 again in this sense.

9 In addition, respondent sexually harassed the 10 Chief Clerk of the Family Court. And, he has shown 11 an appalling lack of insight into his own conduct in 12 this respect. She said she was disgusted by his 13 comments. He testified, well if only she had said 14 something I would have apologized. In addition,
15 respondent telephoned a neighboring county
16 Surrogate's Court to request that an estate that he had 17 not completed while he was still in private practice be 18 closed by motion instead of by an accounting.

19 JUDGE MILLER: – What was wrong –

20 MS. CENCI: – Respondent was a full-time
21 judge –

22 JUDGE MILLER: – Counsel, what was wrong
23 with that call?

24 MS. CENCI: He should have had nothing
25 whatsoever to do with that estate. He is a full-time

1 judge, almost two years on the bench at that point.
2 JUDGE MILLER: Right.
3 MS. CENCI: He should have had nothing to 4 do with it. –
5 JUDGE MILLER: – I think the circumstances
6 were, it had been sitting for a while and there hadn't 7 been a substitution of counsel at that point because for 8 whatever reason.
9 MS. CENCI: He didn't finish the estate –
10 JUDGE MILLER: – Right. –
11 MS. CENCI: – Proceedings before he went on 12 the bench. Took his fee years earlier, but never 13 completed the estate proceedings in the Surrogate's
14 Court. Now the Surrogate's Court is writing letters – 15 JUDGE MILLER: – But he is not being, he's 16 not being charged with his conduct as a lawyer, 17 whether he did a good job or not. He is being charged 18 with his alleged improper behavior while he is a 19 judge, correct?
20 MS. CENCI: Correct.
21 JUDGE MILLER: Okay.
22 MS. CENCI: He contacted another court –
23 JUDGE MILLER: – But what's wrong with 24 the call – I worked on the estate and it should have 25 been closed. Apparently, the problem was not

1 everybody return those statements executed and he 2 makes the call, he gets an answer – no. And then the 3 matter, I believe someone else then finishes it up.

4 MS. CENCI: Even if –

5 JUDGE MILLER: – The call itself is what's 6 wrong? –

7 MS. CENCI: – It sounds like he's practicing 8 law. I mean, he was the attorney of record on that 9 estate. Now he's calling up and he's saying, can we 10 conclude this estate by motion instead of an 11 accounting.

12 JUDGE MILLER: Okay.

13 MS. CENCI: He's making a request. That 14 request went to the Surrogate for decision and he 15 decided it and he said no, it has to be done by an 16 accounting.

17 JUDGE LEACH: Was there a formal decision
18 rendered by the Surrogate based upon that request or 19 was it just a telephone inquiry? If one were to think 20 of a respondent gathering information to assist him in 21 maybe being in a position to hand the matter off to 22 successor counsel, might that not be a permissible
23 inquiry? "What's the status of it? Can it, does it, 24 does it need an accounting or motion? I haven't 25 touched it for two years" because, isn't it true that he

1 did not initiate the call on his own? It was in response
2 to an inquiry by the spouse of somebody, if I am, have 3 the right estate?

4 MS. CENCI: The spouse, the spouse of the 5 fiduciary –

6 JUDGE LEACH: – So somebody had reached
7 out to him and said this thing is not going anywhere
8 so I could view the call as an inquiry to be made 9 based upon the call he had received to determine 10 status. Not practicing law but just to –

11 MS. CENCI: – But he did more than that,
12 Judge. He made a request. He said, can this be closed 13 by motion instead of an accounting? He wanted the 14 problem to go away. He had taken his fee on this 15 estate years earlier. He didn't finish it. Now the wife 16 of the fiduciary, the fiduciary being in the hospital, is 17 getting letters from the Court saying this estate's not, 18 you know, what's, what's happening here? You have 19 to account. You have to close this out. She's upset 20 because she – they've already paid him, and he didn't 21 finish it. So, she gets on the phone with the Court and 22 with respondent. And that's when he makes the call 23 to the Court and asks for relief. Now, if you don't 24 think that's practice of law it's still improper. He 25 should have had nothing whatsoever to do with that

1 estate. Get another lawyer to handle it. That's 2 exactly what he should have done. And, you know –

3 JUDGE LEACH: – I am trying to envision a
4 judge –

5 MS. CENCI: – He was on notice from the 6 prior censure –

7 JUDGE LEACH: – A judge who has handed
8 off a number of files being in a position to pass them 9 along to successor counsel with some insight into 10 where the matter is pending, what the status of it is, if 11 motions have been filed that were not decided? And 12 if paperwork had been filed, is it ready to go by 13 motion, does it need an accounting? But, but he never 14 really, he made inquiry as to the status, never did 15 work which would constitute billable hours beyond a 16 status call. Or do you believe that he went beyond 17 that?

18 MS. CENCI: He did. And because –

19 JUDGE LEACH: – And that the status, I am
20 claiming it as a status call, that it constitutes a practice 21 of law?

22 MS. CENCI: But he, but he never passed the 23 estate along to another attorney. That's the problem.
24 That's what he should have done. Ultimately –

25 JUDGE LEACH: – But that's a different

1 charge. He didn't practice for the entirety of the time
2 he was a judge for those two years until someone 3 reached out to him and he made an inquiry as to 4 status.

5 MS. CENCI: Well –

6 JUDGE LEACH: – He's not charged with not 7 doing the work.

8 MS. CENCI: He should not have made that 9 inquiry as to the status because that clerk did not 10 know who he was. He was the attorney of record at 11 this. Still in that estate at that point, it sounds like it's 12 still –

13 JUDGE MILLER: – Did he represent himself
14 as a judge in that call? I don't believe he did.

15 MS. CENCI: He didn't represent himself as a 16 judge, no.

17 JUDGE MILLER: Okay.

18 MS. CENCI: But it was improper whether or 19 not you, you believe it rises to the level of the practice
20 of law. He's basically making a request of another 21 judge for relief with respect to an estate.

22 MR. HARDING: Ms. Cenci, the strongest 23 argument the evidence supports – that it would 24 support that his amendment to those tax returns and to 25 his federal disclosures were made because he knew

1 trouble was coming.

2 MS. CENCI: Oh, he was caught. He was 3 caught red-handed.

4 MR. HARDING: Could you go through this –

5 MS. CENCI: – Yes. –

6 MR. HARDING: – What supports that 7 argument?

8 MS. CENCI: Yes. So, what happened was 9 when the sexual impropriety allegations came to light, 10 the Inspector General was looking into this as well as 11 into the possibility that respondent was still practicing 12 law. And respondent on July 14, 2017 was presented 13 with the Brigham checks. Copies of the Brigham 14 checks that he had received for that $16,000 of extra 15 judicial income. He knew. They were looking at it 16 then. He knew shortly thereafter that the Commission 17 came into possession of his financial records, 18 including his tax returns and these checks for the 19 estate work and the rents that he had not reported on 20 his tax returns. It was after that time that he amended.
21 And that's why he amended because he was caught.
22 You know, his explanations –

23 MR. HARDING: – The referee doesn't agree 24 with that.

25 MS. CENCI: Well, he is wrong about the, he's

1 wrong about the timeline. The dates and the 2 timeframes are clear in the record. He is just wrong 3 about that.

4 JUDGE LEACH: With respect to Ms.
5 Gallagher's credibility, witnesses testified that she 6 didn't have a reputation for truthfulness in their 7 community. Were there any such witnesses for Mr.
8 Kachadourian? Did – was his credibility found to be 9 untruthful based upon any direct testimony from 10 character witnesses?

11 MS. CENCI: No, I don't believe so.

12 JUDGE LEACH: Do you have an idea of what 13 the referee relied upon in concluding that he was not 14 credible?

15 MS. CENCI: He seemed –

16 JUDGE LEACH: – You know, his decision
17 isn't as clear as one would like on that particular 18 issue.

19 MS. CENCI: Yeah. He, he, in my opinion, he 20 seemed to pick on some kind of odd, extraneous
21 things like the fact that Mr. Kachadourian testified 22 that he didn't want to go with respondent to the 23 President's Inauguration. But then, you know, he was 24 photographed smiling at the Inauguration. And he 25 said, the referee said that that tended to undermine his

1 credibility.

2 JUDGE MILLER: Well counsel, wasn't it also 3 on cross that at one-point Mr. Kachadourian, Mr. K.
4 says, I am going to refuse to answer that question?
5 He got very defensive during cross-examination. I 6 think the referee had a – whether he directed him or 7 then he just corrected himself. There was also 8 testimony that he was more than a willing participant 9 in this trip – trip to the Trump thing. I think through 10 his testimony – did he get the tickets?

11 MS. CENCI: Yeah, he – well no, he 12 acknowledged –

13 JUDGE MILLER: – He supplied the tickets
14 but –

15 MS. CENCI: – His sister got the tickets, but he 16 didn't want to go with respondent.

17 JUDGE MILLER: No, but he testified that he 18 didn't want to go but then when you got into what 19 actually happened on trip it became clear that he was 20 more than happy to be there. I mean this –

21 MS. CENCI: – Because he was smiling in a 22 picture? I mean –

23 JUDGE MILLER: – Well I don't think that 24 was, I think that –

25 MS. CENCI: – This is what the referee relied 1 on.

2 JUDGE MILLER: Okay.

3 MS. CENCI: I thought, I thought it was a 4 stretch myself. But we recognized the referee has, 5 you know, he's given deference with respect to 6 credibility determinations and, you know, you can 7 make your own – you can make your own 8 conclusions.

9 JUDGE MILLER: Right. But the referee also 10 focused on the rather gross testimony about the sexual 11 peccadillos of the woman and the –

13 JUDGE MILLER: – Description of it –

14 MS. CENCI: – Yes –

15 JUDGE MILLER: – Description of it in two or 16 three different ways that just seem so beyond belief –

17 MS. CENCI: – No. Look, here is – excuse me
18 for interrupting, Judge. But, but here –

19 JUDGE MILLER: – Yes. –

20 MS. CENCI: – Is where the referee kind of 21 reversed himself because in one respect he was 22 saying, well these witnesses aren't, you know, 23 corroborated but, well here I am going to attack their 24 credibility because they both said the same thing.
25 You know, they corroborate each other. So, I am

1 going to find that they rehearsed their testimony. I
2 mean, that's the kind of reasoning –

3 JUDGE MILLER: – All right. –

4 MS. CENCI: – That he used. You can 5 determine for yourselves whether you believe that 6 that's a sufficient foundation for his credibility
7 determinations. But I just – I wanted to get back for a 8 moment to respondent's explanations for his failure to 9 disclose income. They were completely
10 disingenuous. Initially he said that he didn't disclose 11 the receipt of the almost $30,000 of income from the 12 practice of law on his financial disclosure form 13 because well he thought he sort of did because it was 14 in a bank account and he reported the value of the 15 bank account. Nonsense. For the year prior, he had 16 properly disclosed his income from the practice of law
17 under paragraph 13 – Income. And that's where it 18 belongs. And he knew how to report it. When he got 19 to the hearing before the referee, he changed his story.
20 Then he said, oh I thought I got the income not in 21 2015, but in 2016. Well guess what? He didn't report 22 it in 2016 either. So, this is highly dishonest conduct.

23 MR. HARDING: The record, is there anything 24 in the record that addresses what the IRS is doing, if 25 anything, about this? Was there a fine paid? Is there

1 any momentum in that regard?

2 MS. CENCI: There's no evidence that they 3 know anything about it. So, you know, ultimately 4 what you have –

5 JUDGE MILLER: – Counsel, is there a date, 6 is there a date in the record when he was notified of 7 the investigation? What was that specific date when 8 he was first advised that he was under investigation?

9 MS. CENCI: By the Commission?

10 JUDGE MILLER: Yes.

11 MS. CENCI: I am not certain that that date is 12 in the record.

13 JUDGE MILLER: Okay.

14 MS. CENCI: He testified that –

15 JUDGE MILLER: – And prior to that he was 16 notified of – he was investigated because of the 17 complaints made by his two employees?

18 MS. CENCI: They didn't complain. They are 19 not the complainants.

20 JUDGE MILLER: No. No. But somebody 21 complained to the Inspector General, that's how the 22 inquiry started?

23 MS. CENCI: Somebody, the Chief Clerk, the 24 one the referee found respondent did sexually harass.
25 Debbi Singer was hearing about these allegations all

1 along from Ms. Gallagher, respondent's secretary.

2 JUDGE MILLER: Right.

3 MS. CENCI: She finally went to the District
4 Executive in, I believe, May or June of 2017. –

5 JUDGE MILLER: – I guess what I was trying 6 to find out is, is when, when did he get first notice of 7 the Commission's investigation as that relates to when 8 these amendments were filed? What's that date 9 because you said the record is clear. So, I was just 10 curious.

11 MS. CENCI: He knew – he knew before he 12 filed. And by the way, we don't know exactly when 13 he did file the amendments. He says, we don't have a 14 date on them, he says it was August 2, 2017. He 15 knew at that time and he admits that he knew at that 16 time that the Commission had his financial records, 17 including his tax returns as they were originally filed 18 and these other records showing that he hadn't 19 reported the income.

20 JUDGE MILLER: Okay.

21 MS. CENCI: He knew at that time.

22 So, respondent has engaged in lewd, dishonest
23 and self-dealing conduct which is unacceptable 24 especially for a Family Court judge. Family Court is 25 the place where litigants come to have some of their

1 most sensitive matters heard by the Court. The public 2 can have no confidence in a judge who has engaged in 3 this kind of conduct. Do not censure him again. He 4 was already censured. He was also cautioned by the 5 Commission for falsely implying in his campaign 6 materials for Family Court that he was a, an 7 incumbent Family Court judge. And there is a sort of 8 a thread of dishonesty and deceit that runs throughout 9 his conduct. Removal is the appropriate sanction.
10 Thank you.

11 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Thank you. The 12 respondent would like to reserve ten minutes for 13 rebuttal.

14 MR. BELLUCK: Okay. Thank you.

15 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: We have a referee
16 that spent six days looking and hearing witnesses.
17 And the role of that referee in assessing what was at 18 times bizarre and creepy testimony by Mark 19 Kachadourian and Rachelle Gallagher, can't be 20 overlooked. And while the Commission in their briefs 21 states that they do accept the referee's finding, in their 22 footnote, they seem to overturn not only factual 23 findings such as there was no practice of law, they 24 also seek to make findings that the referee never 25 made, such as Judge Miller intentionally did not file

1 his returns. One issue relates to the tax returns.

2 And its undisputed testimony from Judge
3 Miller's accountant that soon after April of 2017, he 4 was addressing issues and concerns concerning his 5 rental income and office income. And the dates and 6 references are in page 9 of our opening letter. This is 7 important because no matter when he was notified of 8 the Commission's inquiry, which is not until months 9 earlier at the earliest, even if you assume their date of 10 July 17th as the first date, months before that 11 accountant Robin Dean testified without question,
12 without any challenge whatsoever that Judge Miller
13 knew that he had a problem and was addressing it.
14 And he was delayed in making those amendments
15 because they took his records. As Judge Miller 16 testified, the records that he needed were in a box 17 under his desk, seized. Accountant Dean said that 18 was one of the problems that she had in amending the 19 returns, is that the information wasn't there.
20 Remember there is two issues. Checks that came in, 21 when to report it and what year as well as his rental
22 income. He is addressing this and her advice in April 23 was file now and amend later. That is competent 24 advice. And even if it wasn't, even in a criminal case 25 you can rely on the advice of your accountant if you

1 file something. And the reason the IRS isn't going to 2 be concerned about this case is because he did amend 3 it. He did amend it properly when he could, and he 4 paid any necessary interest or fine that may have been 5 levied by that delay. And in fact, in one case there 6 was no income from rental property so there wasn't an 7 issue whether there was income to report. It is so 8 important to realize that he went to accountant Dean, 9 according to her --

10 JUDGE MILLER: -- Counsel, how was there 11 an issue about the reporting of the income that he 12 received from his practice, wouldn't that be a 13 relatively simple matter? He had to know what year 14 he got it and that should be included in his tax returns, 15 correct?

16 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: That's right. But it 17 turned out that maybe some of those should have been 18 filed the year before. In other words, when the check 19 was written versus when it was deposited. And that's 20 why there had to be an amendment to the earlier year.
21 There were two -- there was two amended returns for 22 '15 and '16. That's exactly what they were 23 addressing. He realizes there is an issue and the 24 accountant says, let's look at everything now and then 25 file amended returns. And that's what they did for the 1 two years.

2 JUDGE MAZZARELLI: What about his 3 failure to file the financial disclosure form accurately
4 and the annual reports with the Clerk of the Family
5 Court where he presided?

6 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Yes. The financial 7 disclosure forms were not accurate because this 8 relates to the tax return information. If his tax returns 9 were not accurate nor was his financial disclosure 10 form. They got amended when the returns were. He 11 did not – he was not aware, as he should have been, of 12 the filing in local Court. He admits that is wrong and 13 incorrect and that should have been done.

14 JUDGE MAZZARELLI: Well, it's apparently 15 conceded that one year he did file the financial 16 disclosure form correctly. He listed the income from 17 his law practice. But then the next year he didn't 18 know how to do it?

19 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Because he didn't 20 believe he had income that year. He thought it was 21 for 2016, the income. And the accountant said, no, 22 no, that should have been reported even if it came in 23 towards the end of the year. It was written back then 24 in December or November. You should report it for 25 the year earlier. You should make it part of the 2015

1 return.

2 JUDGE MILLER: Is there proof that that 3 check in '15 was actually deposited in '16?

4 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: I don't believe the 5 record is clear on that, no. That, that was not 6 addressed. The accountant wasn't asked about why 7 she did the 2015 amended return.

8 JUDGE MILLER: But sometimes lawyers get 9 checks in towards the end of the year and depending 10 upon their income –

11 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: – Yes. –

12 JUDGE MILLER: – They want to defer it to 13 the following year, so they wait –

14 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: – Exactly.

15 JUDGE MILLER: – Sometimes –

16 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: – And that was –

17 JUDGE MILLER: – But is there evidence –

18 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: – That was –

19 JUDGE MILLER: – That that's what 20 happened?

21 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: That was what he 22 was struggling – that was one of the issues that he was 23 struggling with –

25 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: With respect to his

1 – from – remember he takes the bench that year. So, 2 he still has some leftover income. In short, there was 3 no intent. It was just the opposite. There was an 4 intent –

5 JUDGE MAZZARELLI: – He took the bench
6 in which year? I thought, I thought the first year that 7 he was a judge he filed it correctly?

8 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: January 2015.

9 JUDGE MAZZARELLI: Yes. And what is 10 the year that he was struggling with? What form was 11 he struggling with?

12 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: He realizes in '17
13 that he had income that he was going to put on the '16
14 return but maybe the accountant says, no, no, no. I 15 think that should have been on the '15 return. It's part 16 of that crossover year. So, let's, let's amend 2015.
17 He filed, yes, he did file a financial disclosure based 18 on what he believed his income was in 2015. As I 19 said, the intent –

20 JUDGE MAZZARELLI: – But, counsel, 21 opposing counsel said he raised a defense that it was 22 in his bank account and he thought that was sufficient 23 disclosure?

24 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: He also thought
25 that. He also thought if, if I'm giving you my bank

1 account, that also suffices as disclosure. That is 2 incorrect.

3 JUDGE MAZZARELLI: How could the bank
4 account suffice as anything?

5 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Well, that's his 6 asset. He believes that's disclosing my assets and my 7 bank account, that's where the money is. That is not 8 correct though. --

9 JUDGE MAZZARELLI: -- Well was there any 10 explanation on the financial disclosure form as to 11 where the assets came from?

12 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: No. No. So, the 13 intent before any inquiry is to correct his tax returns 14 and that triggers the financial disclosures and as 15 accountant Dean said, she had issues with Judge 16 Miller because of his inability to produce the 17 paperwork necessary particularly for the income from 18 properties and also because they had just begun filing 19 jointly and before they had filed separately, he and his 20 wife, and therefore there was a pressure to file
21 something in April.

22 JUDGE MILLER: Could you address the issue 23 of the letter and the direction to the secretary and the 24 practice of law question?

25 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Yes. There was no

1 order, command to do a letter. The testimony at its 2 worse is that Judge Miller asked. His testimony and 3 recollection was he had the envelope and the secretary
4 agreed to type this four-sentence letter. And, in fact 5 she said she made corrections herself to the letter a 6 couple of times. And there's – it's a bizarre letter 7 because it has the address of the secretary. Who 8 would put that as a address for a lawyer? But 9 anyway, that's what she did. I think that speaks to the 10 fact that she did draft that letter. It was never sent.
11 This is the only instance in a 20-year career that we 12 can find that Judge Miller ever had anything, any 13 request made to any person in his office to do 14 something of a personal nature.

15 JUDGE MILLER: I am sorry counsel, you just 16 said something that I – did I hear it correctly, you are 17 claiming the letter was typed but never sent?

18 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Right. Judge
19 Miller testified that it was prepared but never sent.
20 That was his testimony. That he took it back and took 21 it back to the law office and had it sent from there.
22 But not that letter. I believe it was a different letter 23 that was sent.

24 JUDGE MILLER: And did the secretary –

25 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: – And the

1 Commission doesn't claim that it was sent. There is 2 no allegation that it was sent.

3 JUDGE MILLER: This is bizarre.

4 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: The allegation was 5 that it was typed on office time. I believe that's the 6 impropriety.

7 JUDGE FALK: There's no question that's an 8 impropriety though, right?

9 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Pardon?

10 JUDGE FALK: There's no question that's an 11 impropriety because —

12 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: — There is no
13 question that staff should not do anything of a 14 personal nature and Judge Miller has acknowledged 15 that. And it should not have occurred.

16 JUDGE LEACH: What about the photograph
17 that was, I think the position of respondent is that it 18 was shown to Mr. Kachadourian by Mr. Iannone. Is 19 that correct, Iannone?

20 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: There is a 21 disconnect between the formal written complaint and 22 the actual testimony. So, the complaint charge is that 23 something happened in chambers. There is no proof 24 that anything happened in chambers other than 25 Kachadourian, if you credit his testimony, which I

1 would like to address separately to follow up on the 2 questions about Kachadourian. L [REDACTED] says that 3 she finds out later that she saw a photo and at first, she 4 is not even sure it is her. And then Kachadourian in 5 some really creepy testimony says, "Oh I know her 6 breasts. I know her body. And that was her breast 7 and body in the photo that I saw." L [REDACTED] even 8 was not sure if that her photo or not. And then on re-9 direct, that could be because there is a perhaps a piece 10 of jewelry that she owned. No one ever produces a 11 photograph. They could have gotten his phone. They 12 were taking his bank records. Why didn't they just 13 seize his phone? That would be the clearest way.
14 They have a burden of proof. Beyond a 15 preponderance of evidence is the burden of proof.
16 They didn't even try to show that any picture actually 17 existed. Now Ms. L [REDACTED] said that in her 18 relationship there were multiple photographs and 19 sexual videos taken. So, there is no question about 20 the fact that in that relationship as they are allowed to 21 do, they did that and her only knowledge from 22 Iannone was something happened outside of Court 23 and Judge Miller had nothing to do with it. That was 24 the testimony of L [REDACTED] who also note testified that 25 as Clerk of that Court, that Judge Miller was a fair,

1 impartial judge who treated staff, the clerks well.
2 That's L [REDACTED]'s testimony. Their star witness was 3 actually a character witness for Judge Miller.

4 MR. BELLUCK: Could I ask, could I ask you 5 a question?

6 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Yes.

7 MR. BELLUCK: Just so I have some clarity 8 on this.

9 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Uh hum.

10 MR. BELLUCK: Of, of the four charges,
11 which charges or elements of them are you 12 acknowledging there was misconduct?

13 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: We acknowledge 14 the letter should not have been written. We 15 acknowledge that, to use the words of the referee, that 16 Judge Miller used unprofessional language in 17 speaking to Ms. Vroman and Ms. Singer. We 18 acknowledge that the financial disclosure reports 19 should have been filed in a timely fashion and were 20 not. And that the report, that he should have been 21 aware of the Clerk's requirement to file a disclosure 22 with the Clerk.

23 MR. BELLUCK: Okay. Thank you.

24 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: It is important to 25 note that, again this testimony from L [REDACTED] did not

1 follow the complaint at all. So, there was no notice 2 that we are supposed to be defending something that 3 happened outside where Judge Miller is not even, you 4 know, present. And I think that's why – whether that 5 happened or not, that's not the charge. That's not the 6 charge at all. The charge was something else that was 7 not proven by a preponderance of the evidence and 8 that's what the referee –

9 JUDGE MILLER: – Counsel, I apologize.
10 Where, where in the charge are you saying it was 11 charged one way and then proved another? Would it 12 – this has to do with the photograph? Where is that in 13 the, in the formal written complaint?

14 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Yes, the formal 15 written complaint –

16 JUDGE MILLER: – Is it paragraph 13, page 17 3?

18 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Exactly.

19 JUDGE MILLER: In or about early –

20 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: – Exactly.

21 JUDGE MILLER: Okay. Thank you, sir.

22 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Exactly, Judge
23 Miller. Exactly, Judge Miller.

24 And when we talk about this allegation, there's 25 another part of this record that is unrebutted besides

1 the accountant. –

2 JUDGE MILLER: – So you are saying there 3 was no testimony that this ever occurred in 4 “chambers?”

5 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: No credible
6 testimony. Mr. Kachadourian gave testimony which 7 was part of his helter skelter, rambling, bizarre
8 testimony. An individual who a panel of arbitrators 9 found acted in bad faith when he took the name of 10 Dale Earnhardt and appropriated it for his own use.
11 So, the arbitrator, I mean the referee had many other 12 aspects of Mr. Kachadourian to evaluate his 13 credibility besides the fact that he gave the impression
14 that Judge Miller was forcing him to do things and go 15 places when it turned out once he was confronted with 16 proof that he got tickets for the inauguration, he 17 volunteered to go with Judge Miller and there are 18 photos of him engaging in joyful behavior at that 19 inauguration.

20 So, the judge – the referee felt he was being 21 misled and duped by Mr. Kachadourian, which he 22 was. He is a used car salesman. That’s what he does.
23 He’s a used car salesman that wrote two opinions and 24 the referee, who is a former federal law clerk, was 25 shocked and asks Mr. Kach, that was your job,

1 though, to write opinions for the judge. And they 2 could only come up with two. That's why there were 3 performance issues with Mr. Kachadourian. He knew 4 he was on the way out. You can't do two decisions
5 for a judge in a couple of years and say you are doing 6 your job. He was too nice and let him stay too long.
7 That's what was going on with Mr. Kachadourian.

8 And, the way he answered questions – Judge
9 Miller pointed out the content where he just outright
10 refused many times, either, "I don't have to answer 11 that question" or "I refuse." But I am telling you, the 12 referee saw this guy in operation and he came across 13 just as the referee said, "I am not going to believe 14 him." And he looked the referee in the eye and said, 15 "Trust me and believe me." He's not even here to 16 look you in the eye. You don't have the benefit of 17 what the referee did. But you do have the benefit at 18 least of his answers and his conduct and why the 19 referee made that finding, an experienced referee
20 chosen by this Commission. He's done other work.
21 There is just no reason that they even suggest to you 22 that he can be accepted.

23 And, going back to the photograph,
24 Kachadourian is also contradicted by witnesses such 25 as Stilloe and others who said, "I never said these

1 things that you are attributing to me on the phone.”
2 That was another way the referee had of assessing his 3 credibility. They didn’t even take the time to 4 interview these people and find out just like they 5 didn’t interview his accountant. No, it became his job
6 and burden to conduct an investigation of himself
7 essentially to show what had not occurred. But there 8 was testimony of his reputation for doing something 9 like this and it began with Jolene Payne, who is a 10 police officer now who had worked for him. This is 11 not the type of person he is. And how would she 12 know that? How would these character witnesses 13 know about his temperament and reputation for sexual 14 propriety? Because probably more than any other 15 case this Commission has seen, this has been a public 16 case. There is no confidentiality here because 17 Gallagher and Kachadourian were going to the news
18 media where her husband worked, it’s in the record, 19 and broadcasting literally allegations against Judge
20 Miller and then filing a federal lawsuit weeks before 21 his hearing. But what that did, that lawsuit, is 22 witnesses, our character witnesses said there was a 23 discussion in the community. Because ordinarily 24 when do witnesses discuss sexual propriety? It’s not 25 something we do. But in this case because of the fact

1 that they blasted this over the airwaves, police 2 officers, as Jolene Payne said discussed it, the most,
3 one of the most senior Family Court practitioner –

4 JUDGE LEACH: – I am sorry. What about 5 the comments that were sustained that I believe you

7 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: – Yes. –

8 JUDGE LEACH: – The comments made to 9 Ms. Singer on two separate occasions. Correct?

10 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: On two occasions, 11 yes.

12 JUDGE LEACH: Such as inappropriate sexist 13 remarks?

14 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Inappropriate
15 remarks, I think –

16 JUDGE LEACH: – I said sexist remarks.

17 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: The referee did not 18 find that they were sexist. He found there was no 19 intent to harm. I be – I have no dispute that –

20 JUDGE LEACH: – Is it, is it, is it
21 respondent's position that to make such a statement 22 about how hot one looks, and you should wear that all 23 the time and with respect to cook, I should have gone 24 for the widow, I should have made it the choice, these 25 are appropriate? They were not made with intent?

1 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: What the referee –
2 JUDGE LEACH: – And is intent, is intent 3 important if the listener might find the comments to 4 be totally inappropriate?
5 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: You are correct.
6 But –
7 JUDGE LEACH: – So, he concedes that? You 8 concede that?
9 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Well, yes. But – 10 JUDGE LEACH: – Is that not indicative of the 11 type of behavior that could potentially be expanded to, 12 for one to conclude, or us to conclude, that maybe he 13 had engaged in some other inappropriate behavior? –
14 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: – I tell you one
15 thing –
16 JUDGE LEACH: – I see hear that, you know,
17 that unprofessional conduct towards female court
18 assistant in open public, denigration of a female.
19 That's sexist to me. These not indicative of some 20 personality trait that one could attribute to your client 21 that's inappropriate and inconsistent with being a 22 judicial officer?
23 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: I don't believe you 24 could make the leap from those – 25 JUDGE LEACH: – Too great a leap?

1 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: I'll tell you, and I
2 will tell you why. First of all, even the referee's 3 findings was –

4 JUDGE LEACH: – I am not interested in the 5 referee's findings. I need you to tell me why that's 6 too great a leap.

7 MR. DEROHANNESIAN: Because you have 8 too many people who have worked with Judge Miller
9 who testified over a twenty-year period. Court 10 officials from court clerks in the local court, from 11 D [REDACTED] L [REDACTED] to the security supervisor in his 12 courtroom to the dean of matrimonial attorneys in 13 Broome County. And if all these people have had 14 discussions, that's what reputation is, it's not just their 15 opinion, from other people, it would have come out 16 because people worked in his court who now work in 17 the law firm where the matrimonial attorney is. There 18 is a discussion. And there would have been at least 19 once, one time, that we would have heard not just 20 from these witnesses, the Commission would have 21 found something in his past and there wasn't. That 22 un rebutted testimony of his reputation for judicial 23 temperament and sexual propriety is why you have to 24 look at those comments as being not indicative and 25 isolated comments. Thank you.

1 JUDGE R.H. MILLER: May I proceed?

2 Thank you to the Commission members for your hard 3 work. Please indulge me in allowing me to read this.
4 I'm quite nervous and I don't want to leave anything
5 out. I hope that you can be fair and impartial. I
6 always want to thank referee Barrer for the fair, 7 impartial and professional treatment he afforded me.

8 This case was one of drastic extremes. It was 9 surreal because there are two very different claims as 10 to what I purportedly did and the person who I am. I 11 took a long, hard look at the transcripts, the referee's 12 findings and reasoning, as well as the briefs in this 13 matter. I've reflected on all of that. It was bittersweet 14 that I was disheartened at the violent crude 15 accusations my former employees, who still have jobs 16 and continue to malign me. They did it in the OCA, 17 the Inspector General and in these proceedings, in a 18 civil suit. Each time they appeared in any forum, 19 something was leaked and reported to the press. It 20 was and remains disheartening that they could do so 21 without any thought and what havoc it caused my 22 family, my wife, my mother, our children and our 23 friends in a community that adored my now deceased 24 father, who was revered due to his commitment to 25 public service and for whom I am named. But I was

1 heartened to know that there are many more people
2 with good character who support me and know that I 3 am a productive judge with a reputation over many 4 years for good judicial temperament.

5 I want to address Commission counsel's reply
6 which states my request for sanction no greater than a 7 censure suggest that at some level the seriousness of 8 my wrongdoing isn't apparent even to him. I wanted
9 to state to all of you, I have repeatedly accepted 10 responsibility when I was wrong and always 11 cooperate with the Commission's investigations. I did 12 so in 2002, an agreed upon disposition that led to my 13 censure as a part-time judge on the bench. I did so 14 when I received the Dismissal and Caution. And, 15 most importantly I have done so in this proceeding.
16 Even though I had to fight the scurrilous and 17 unfounded allegations that my former employees
18 leveled against me, I am grateful that referee Barrer 19 found them to be incredible.

20 As to the charges that were sustained, I have 21 accepted referee Barrer's findings. I would like to 22 reiterate my apologies to Ms. Vroman and Ms. Singer.
23 They are professionals. I will be mindful of their 24 feelings when I deal with them. I can assure you that 25 it will never happen again.

1 As to my financial filings, I apologize and 2 recognize that they should have been timely. And that 3 they should have reflected what I earned outside my 4 salary as a judge. I was disorganized. I was 5 recuperating. And, I had a spinal fusion, I have a 6 cage, rods and screws in my back and I was going 7 through some medical issues. But I never intended to 8 mislead anyone. There was no need to. It was not 9 worth it given the amounts involved. I was not a good 10 business person. But before any inquiry I relied on 11 the advice of my accountant and filed tax returns in 12 April 2017, even though I had incomplete records and 13 I did not have all the relevant documents I needed to 14 do so. In fact, shortly after the April 2017 filings and 15 well before any inquiry by anyone, my accountant and 16 I discussed amended tax returns. I was delayed in my 17 filings because the records I assembled were in 18 personal boxes under my desk in chambers and they 19 were taken by the Commission. However, I am now, 20 with the assistance of my accountant and my 21 attorneys, better organized and cognizant of my duties
22 as well as the deadlines. I sincerely apologize to you, 23 my colleagues on the bench and the legal profession 24 for my actions that will never happen again. I take 25 my duties as judge seriously. I hope that you allow

1 me to return to them.

2 I want to address the reasons why I'd like to 3 remain on the bench. Based on my experience, many 4 cases were heard more quickly and were immediately
5 addressed, and we were able to deal with those family 6 problems. I enjoy working in Family Court and have 7 been successful in dealing with litigants who have 8 nowhere else to turn and need to be heard. There was 9 a backlog of cases before I took the bench in Family
10 Court. My productivity helped reduce that wait time 11 because so many litigants had a long time to wait to 12 get their cases heard. Unfortunately, again, there is a 13 backlog in Family Court without me there to serve.
14 Based on the feedback from litigants I learned I had a 15 positive impact on their families. I took the time to 16 listen to their problems and helped them reach a fair
17 resolution. People have approached me unsolicited 18 and thanked me for the respectful way they were 19 treated in Court.

20 During this proceeding, I was gratified to hear 21 that I have a reputation for good judicial temperament.
22 I listen. I am just, impartial, hardworking. I'm 23 timely, conscientious, fair in addressing all issues that 24 come before Family Court. I am honest, calm, 25 patient, open-minded and now as well using my

1 experience to serve the people of the State of New 2 York.

3 I brought many years of experience to the job,
4 close to 20 years, as a town and village judge. I was a
5 town judge in town of Union one of the – sixteenth 6 largest town in the State of New York. And the 7 village of Johnson City, full-time police force and I 8 have been a practicing attorney for 25 years.

9 Nonetheless, there is a big learning curve to be a 10 productive and effective Family Court judge. I put 11 much time and effort into learning the job, often 12 sacrificing personal time to be a productive judge.
13 While carrying a full caseload in Broome County
14 Family Court, I was assigned to work in five other 15 counties as a Family Court judge, so I was able to see 16 how other courts functions and these other counties as 17 well as in Broome County. None of my Family Court
18 decisions were appealed or overturned. No
19 complaints were ever filed against me by litigants. I 20 was able to take my experience as a private 21 practitioner and judge to triage cases and find the 22 resources needed to help the parties successfully 23 parent their children.

24 I would like to get back to my work with the 25 Family Court Judges Association. I was the

1 chairperson of the Family Court Judges Association, 2 Legislative Committee, that met with the Senate and 3 Assembly members in Albany. And I was proud that 4 we were able to positively support Raise the Age
5 legislation that was passed. I would like to continue 6 interacting with local programs. The Children's 7 Home in Wyoming Conference, SOS Shelter; Crime
8 Victim Assistance Center, working mothers, people 9 with disabilities, services for the mentally ill, dealing 10 with the drug and alcohol rehabilitation and 11 counseling and domestic violence victims. I would 12 also like to do more to involve the elderly and retired 13 teachers, using them as role models to help families
14 by creating mentoring programs with them. My work
15 with these programs and the role I play as a judge 16 presents a tremendous opportunity to work with and 17 give back to our community.

18 Lastly, I wanted to let you know who I am; a 19 husband, father, son, brother, uncle, great uncle, 20 teacher, coach, mentor, colleague, friend, volunteer, 21 lector at St. James Church, Fourth Degree Knights of 22 Columbus, Master Mason, member of the Elks Club
23 Rotarian. I've coached girls AAU basketball, softball, 24 tennis. I coach boys AAU basketball, little league 25 baseball, peewee football, golf little league. I have

1 chaperoned many field trips in choir competitions. I 2 visit the Veterans Home at Oxford in Greene, New 3 York and local nursing homes. I serve food at a local 4 soup kitchen.

5 Most importantly, I am a loyal husband and 6 father of four children. My oldest son is in his third 7 year of law school at Syracuse. My daughter, Lauren, 8 is in grad school at Columbia seeking a Master's in 9 Public Health. I have a senior in high school, 10 Julianna, honor student. A son Joseph, tenth grade, 11 honor student, both athletes, both involved in the 12 community. Our family supports a child through 13 Unbound, an organization to help needy children in 14 South America. The child we sponsor is a six-year 15 old boy named Gene from Honduras.

16 I again thank you for your time. I fervently 17 wish that you will let me continue so that I can –

18 MR. BELLUCK: – Judge, we are getting close 19 to the end of your time and I know you wanted to 20 conclude your statement, but I have a question for 21 you. There are many judges in the state that this 22 Commission doesn't deal with on – once. And, this is 23 now the third time that you are before us and your 24 attorney acknowledged, and you've acknowledged 25 three separate instances where misconduct occurred,

1 and I don't understand why we are here again with 2 you given everything you just said to us. If I were in 3 the position you were in where I received prior 4 discipline and a prior Dismissal and Caution, I would 5 have done every single thing possible. I would have 6 over acted to avoid coming before this Commission.
7 So, I would like you to answer the question for me,
8 why are we here with you again?

9 JUDGE R.H. MILLER: Well, the initial 10 censure was from 2002. It started I think in 2001. I 11 was new as a judge at that time. And I accepted an 12 agreed upon disposition with my counsel at that time 13 to that. I hadn't had any other issues until I ran for 14 Family Court judge. It was over a campaign sign.
15 We all used the campaign signs, four of us, all ran for 16 the same job. There was a sign that listed all of us the 17 same way. Twelve other judges used the campaign 18 sign. One batch of fifty campaign signs got ordered.
19 All my other campaign stuff was fine. And then these 20 charges being leveled against me which are totally 21 untrue. —

22 MR. BELLUCK: — They are not untrue. You
23 have acknowledged three of them and I am sure that 24 the instance from 2002 wasn't a pleasant one for you.
25 So, the fact that when you're formulating the 1 inappropriate comments that you made, and you are 2 asking someone to write a letter that was misconduct, 3 and you are not filing your financial disclosure form,

4 the fact doesn't, doesn't occur to you at the time, I am
5 going to be back before the Commission if I do
6 something wrong. Putting aside that you should not 7 do something wrong just for the sake of not doing 8 something wrong, but the fact that your prior 9 experience here doesn't trigger within you some, 10 some lightbulb to not behave that way, is very 11 concerning when you are asking us to, to basically do 12 a censure and not a removal. And I am trying to 13 understand from you when you're -- if you continue 14 on the bench, what, what is going to stop you from 15 doing something wrong again?

16 JUDGE R.H. MILLER: Well, I can tell you 17 based on the specific items that are here in front of 18 you, the financial disclosure forms, I now file 19 separately from my wife. I did so prior to me taking 20 the bench. My wife has her own business and has to 21 file K-1s so she has to file in April. I didn't have all 22 my information together for the accountant like I did,
23 and I thought that income that actually came in in '15
24 was cashed in '16. So, I had to go back, and I 25 amended both my returns. I did both of those so that

1 the Commission knows that. I did file those amended
2 returns, the federal returns in August of 2017. I filed 3 my amended financial disclosures. I was not aware of 4 the filing with the clerk, with our Clerk of the Court.
5 And I have done so since. And I am well aware of 6 that. I wasn't aware of it at the time. And I have 7 admitted to that.

8 As to any – the issue with the letter, you want 9 to know specifically about that. Coming in from 10 Court at the end of the day, I had checks I picked up 11 from lunch, came in, had checks, I saw them. They 12 weren't signed. I did say it in front of my secretary. I 13 will not bring up any, any issues, any private issues 14 before a secretary again. So, I ask the Commission to 15 consider that because at that point, you know, I just 16 was conversing. I came back down. I was speaking 17 out loud in front of my – the court staff, which would 18 have been the attorney and the court secretary. In the 19 future I won't do that. I won't bring up any personal 20 issues of my finances or anything else because I had 21 to complete my financial forms. It was part of my job 22 for Family Court and I was doing that there.

23 As to the phone call that was made to Tioga
24 County, a letter came in to my old office. As a 25 courtesy phone call, I called them to let them know

1 that I was a judge, that I wasn't going to be on the 2 case. As we got into this issue, I had motions that I 3 did prior to when I worked on that file and the 4 conversation that I shared with her I did – there were 5 motions, there were two, there was someone in 6 California, and I told them. I had to do it by motion.
7 So, I can only speak as to what I did. I've had it from 8 other judges that have taken the bench and they have 9 been listed as attorneys of record that came before me, 10 courtesy phone call or not. I told the staff that the 11 person is a judge, they can't hear this case. So, within 12 our own staff, we are in small counties, it's hard to 13 believe that our neighboring county after we've had 14 advertising the campaigns, that they didn't know.
15 You know. Each clerk gets a listing of all of our 16 judges. We have a monthly report that goes out to 17 every Chief Clerk of the Courts. My productivity and 18 I think it's one of the Exhibits, my productivity was 19 excellent. I was doing my job. But that information 20 is shared with all the clerks. So, I was trying to 21 contact them to say, I'm not able to – I'm not an 22 attorney. I stopped practicing law and became a 23 judge. That's the reason why the call was made. Not 24 to be deceitful. And the other issues that were made 25 about how I spoke or what words I chose. It was a

1 mistake that was made. That's not how my behavior
2 is all the time. It's not. I am family man. I have been 3 that my whole life. That's how I got elected to these 4 jobs. I worked in Family Court. I worked with the 5 officers. I worked with court personnel. No judge
6 would be good without that support staff. A true 7 judge needs support staff to help them to be 8 successful. And any real judge knows that. You can't 9 function by treating anyone – not treating someone 10 well that you work with. That would be unacceptable.
11 And if that were the case, where are the list of 12 employees that would have come in and said that I 13 was not fair to them. That I didn't treat them well.
14 My office was downstairs with the employees. All 15 the other judges are on a different floor. So, I was 16 down with the employees. I'd have to walk in and say 17 hello to them every day. They weren't used to that.
18 They said, 'the judges rarely even talk to us as support 19 staff.'

20 I have been involved in our community. I have 21 been involved in the church. I am involved with my 22 children. And this has been a public –

23 MR. BELLUCK: – Judge, thank you. We 24 appreciate your time very much.

25 JUDGE R.H. MILLER: Thank you. Thank

1 you.
2 MS. SCALISE: Rebuttal?
3 MR. BELLUCK: Ms. Cenci, do you have any 4 rebuttal?
5 MS. SCALISE: Don't I go first? I'm sorry, I
6 always get confused about this.
7 MS. CENCI: I don't know, we are splitting it
8 up with two attorneys so, who? She goes next?
9 MS. SCALISE: I go first, right? And she gets 10 the last word? Okay.
11 MR. BELLUCK: Was time reserved for – 12 MS. SCALISE: – Yes, we reserved ten
13 minutes. Mr. DerOhannesian reserved ten minutes.
14 I'm sorry?
15 MR. BELLUCK: My understanding was you
16 reserved time – you indicated the judge was going to 17 speak for ten minutes. Maybe I misheard.
18 JUDGE MILLER: Each side reserved for 19 rebuttal. Counsel reserved and counsel for the 20 Commission reserved.
21 MR. BELLUCK: Okay. Go ahead.
22 MS. SCALISE: May I proceed? Thank you.
23 This is a very hard case and it's obvious that all of 24 you have read this record in its entirety. The 25 unfortunate part is whether you call them

1 complainants or not. The people who brought things
2 to the Commission's attention made things snowball
3 into things that may not have even occurred. So, what 4 do I mean by that? Okay. If you take a look at our 5 papers in the reply in particular, the financial 6 disclosure forms, okay, normally, and it's in the 7 Commission's reports, a judge is allowed to correct
8 things. But here because it was so many things going 9 on at once, he was never given that opportunity. And,
10 in addition to that, the Commission subpoenaed his 11 files that he was amassing so that he could make the 12 corrections to his tax returns, his financial disclosure 13 statements and also later to the report he learned he 14 had to do to the Clerk of the Family Court. So, we 15 start off with the proposition of two witnesses with 16 incredibly scurrilous allegations. And you heard Ms.
17 Cenci say he was here before and now he's back.
18 Now I want to mention a case to you that actually is 19 not in the record. But I think it's important to note, 20 Matter of Teresi, okay, there were two cases with 21 Judge Teresi. I am sure you are familiar with them.
22 Both of them were agreed statements of facts and both 23 of them Teresi got a censure from this Commission, 24 okay, within three years of each other. We've listed 25 many other cases of similar conduct and one of the

1 things I want to note is that in Section 44 of the Rules, 2 it specifically states, repeated or habitual
3 intemperance with harm to litigants. In this case there
4 is not one allegation of harm to litigants. In this case 5 we heard repeatedly from litigants' attorneys and from 6 people who worked in the court, court officers, Ms.
7 L [REDACTED], even Ms. Vroman, who they had a bad 8 day, said after that they worked really well together 9 for months. Some days working alone because 10 someone like Mr. Kachadourian found it fit during 11 court time to go to the bank. That was the testimony.
12 So, here we have a very big contrast of who this judge 13 is and who's portraying it and sort of a runaway train 14 of what happened. But what was sustained? And 15 what has he accepted? Okay. And you've heard what 16 he's accepted. And there's repeated, repeated cases 17 where people have gotten, have had a history, some of 18 it much more egregious than this judge. A lot of it 19 involving litigants. Teresi threw somebody in jail for 20 contempt when he showed up pro se and yet he was 21 given a second chance in agreement with counsel for 22 the Commission. Our judge does not get the benefit 23 of that because of the runaway train. Because of these 24 people –

25 MR. BELLUCK: – You are not, you are not,

1 you're not suggesting to us that the public doesn't 2 have an interest in the issues that –

3 MS. SCALISE: – No. I am not suggesting 4 that –

5 MR. BELLUCK: – That the judge and – and 6 you as his counselor have acknowledged?

7 MS. SCALISE: No. I am not suggesting that 8 at all.

9 MR. BELLUCK: Right? There's a public
10 interest in proper financial disclosure –

11 MS. SCALISE: – Absolutely.

12 MR. BELLUCK: There's a proper interest in 13 not having a judge who made harassing comments.
14 There's a public interest in not having staff paid for 15 by taxpayers doing private work. So –

16 MS. SCALISE: – I agree with everything you 17 say, and the judge agrees with it as well. Okay. What 18 I am saying is a lot of it came to light where they 19 might have been an opportunity to correct some of the 20 things, including the financial disclosure –

21 MR. BELLUCK: – Yes, but, but, you know –

22 MS. SCALISE: – That's the only comment I 23 was making.

24 MR. BELLUCK: You keep saying that the 25 judge acknowledges what he did.

1 MS. SCALISE: Yes.

2 MR. BELLUCK: And he seemed to suggest 3 that too.

4 MS. SCALISE: Yes.

5 MR. BELLUCK: But, but, you know, he also 6 characterizes it as mistakes because he was distracted, 7 and it is not what he usually does. And he should 8 have, you know, he had something wrong with his 9 back and to me that's not a true acknowledgement.
10 He started in his answer to me when I asked, why are 11 we here again, by saying the allegations here are not 12 true. And that's, that's absolutely false. He's 13 acknowledged, and you've acknowledged that he 14 committed three separate instances of misconduct
15 here and for him to start his response to me by saying, 16 look at these other two people who worked for me and 17 the outrageous false comments they made. What I did 18 is not true. It doesn't suggest to me that he still really 19 gets it.

20 MS. SCALISE: Okay. May I address that?

21 MR. BELLUCK: You sho – yes, I think you 22 should because –

23 MS. SCALISE: Thank you, Mr. Belluck.

24 MR. BELLUCK: You know, my impression 25 is, is that he's been here before and if we leave him on

1 the bench, he's going to be back for a fourth time.

2 MS. SCALISE: Mr. Belluck, this case as you
3 know is six, was six days, twenty some odd witnesses, 4 it was hard fought because it's a reputation case. This 5 judge's reputation in the community is what is at 6 stake. We acknowledge the mistakes he made. We 7 don't say that he should not be punished for it. But 8 we do say it should fit the punishment, okay. I'd like 9 to quote the case of Edward J. Williams, which I do in 10 my reply. Because what this Commission has said 11 and what the Court of Appeals has repeatedly said is 12 that the misconduct, although serious, does not rise to 13 level of truly egregious misbehavior requiring the 14 sanction of removal. Removal is the, an extreme 15 sanction that should be imposed only in the event of 16 truly egregious circumstances. While we don't 17 disagree that there was misconduct in this case, the 18 misconduct, part of it could have been corrected. I 19 give you the fact that you don't accept that his back 20 problem and everything else had happened. But at the 21 end of the day what are we looking at? In addition, 22 the comments that were made were characterized by 23 the referee as unprofessional. He did – he specifically 24 said that he did not attribute it to the scurrilous and I
25 forget what the wording was in his report and I ask

1 you to read it, but he in particular said he did not 2 attribute it to the same ilk of the comments that were 3 repeatedly made and alleged by Ms. Gallagher and 4 Mr. Kachadourian. So yes, Judge Miller understands 5 that whatever his intent was, and he told you that, it 6 will not happen again. It is a perception thing where 7 you have somebody that you are speaking to, okay?
8 So, having said that, I am a woman and I do 9 understand how somebody could perceive something 10 wrong, okay. And Judge Miller gets it now, too. He 11 has spent an extraordinary amount of time trying to 12 redeem his reputation. As Mr. DerOhannesian said, 13 he spent an extraordinary amount of time
14 investigating things, so he could prove his reputation 15 to you. Some of the witnesses were the 16 Commission's witnesses who proved his reputation 17 and the good works he does in the Court. I think that, 18 well what I think is irrelevant. What you need to 19 think, okay, what you need to find is is this judge 20 worthy? Is this judge someone we want on our 21 bench? Has he learned his lesson? Absolutely. Will 22 he ever be here again? He hopes not. This is not the 23 end of the road for him, as you know, because there is 24 a civil litigation, okay. So, there is still things out 25 there. He has – he is a family man and yet his family

1 has to hear every time something happens in the IG's 2 Office, in the Commission. You know, they filed this 3 case just weeks before and that had actually benefitted
4 the judge. You want to know why? Because people 5 came forward and said they want to tell you the good 6 things about this judge. We want to tell you who he 7 is; what he does on the bench; why we appreciate him.
8 And so, what we are saying is let him redeem himself.
9 Let him be the judge he can be and –

10 MR. BELLUCK: – And, just, just so I am 11 clear, okay, as a woman, and you started your part of 12 your argument with that –

13 MS. SCALISE: – Yes.

14 MR. BELLUCK: You think if a person who is 15 supervising you says, you look really hot in that outfit, 16 you should always wear that outfit, that that's a 17 mistake? That –

18 MS. SCALISE: – I think –

19 MR. BELLUCK: – Someone else would,
20 someone else would interpret that differently?

21 MS. SCALISE: No. I think it's inappropriate.
22 I also have the benefit of practicing for 32 years and 23 I've had that comment made to me. The difference 24 being I open my mouth because I happen to be a very 25 vocal person. But that doesn't mean she had to, okay.

1 And he acknowledges that he shouldn't have made
2 that statement. He acknowledges that it was a bad day 3 with judge – with Ms. Vroman. But I want you to 4 look at the record and see what else they say about 5 Judge Miller. How his calendar was. How his work 6 got done. The amount of work that did get done. Is 7 there some balance that you can come to that we 8 could all live with? We hope that you can because the 9 people of Broome County elected him to Family 10 Court. He did his job. People were satisfied when 11 they appeared. It was not his words that you heard 12 when he was quoting what the actual testimony of 13 witness after witness who came in and testified for 14 him, including a court officer who was there on a 15 daily basis with him, about how professional he was.
16 So, we thank you very much for your time. We hope 17 you see it our way and that you impose no greater 18 than a censure. Thank you.

19 MR. BELLUCK: Thank you very much. Ms.
20 Cenci, do you have any rebuttal?

21 MS. CENCI: Just very briefly. You know
22 respondent would have you believe that he apologized 23 for his sexual harassment of the Chief Clerk. He 24 never did. Similarly, he never apologized to the other 25 clerk that he berated in the court because she was too

1 slow on an occasion when he wanted to leave work 2 early. That's just not true. It's also not true that he 3 couldn't properly file his financial disclosure forms 4 and tax returns because the Commission had 5 possession of his records. Not the case at all.

6 JUDGE MILLER: Counsel, do you know
7 what one of my concerns is? If I could just express it, 8 is, and I read the entire transcript, this was largely a 9 trial that was held relating to the allegations of these 10 two employees, his personal employees. Almost the 11 whole trial was spent on that. A lot of it was trying to 12 malign the Judge as to some of his friends being 13 Italian and having criminal backgrounds. I mean 14 some of the stuff that even the Commission put in was 15 frankly shocking. And so, that's really the heart of 16 this case. And now related issues of misconduct have 17 come up. But if those allegations never would have 18 occurred, none of this stuff would have ever gotten to 19 us. —

20 MS. CENCI: — I don't think you can, I don't 21 think you can —

22 JUDGE MILLER: — And that's what troubles
23 me here.

24 MS. CENCI: I don't think you can make that 25 assumption, Judge Miller.

1 JUDGE MILLER: Okay. I'm just –
2 MS. CENCI: – You just can't.
3 JUDGE MILLER: Well if you read –
4 MS. CENCI: – I'm sorry. –
5 JUDGE MILLER: – That's what this trial was 6 about. And that's – 7 MS. CENCI: – No. These allegations, the 8 formal written complaint was always in the form in 9 which you see it. –
10 JUDGE MILLER: – But how many days were 11 devoted to that, these alle – I don't want to argue with 12 you. I am just saying from that nightmare and to me I 13 found the testimony largely incredible and loaded 14 with lies, frankly and then the related attempts to 15 basically, he had a friend who got convicted of a 16 crime twenty some odd years ago and that was an 17 attempt to malign him. Somebody else was Italian.
18 That was an attempt to malign. That testimony and 19 now all of a sudden, alright, he screwed up on his tax 20 returns and we should remove him. I am having 21 trouble making the jump because there was a basic 22 failure to prove the main charges. Yes, he's 23 acknowledged the other charges. So –
24 MS. CENCI: – We proved the photograph.
25 We proved the photograph. –

1 JUDGE MILLER: – Why didn't you subpoena
2 his phone? Why wasn't – you took everything else.
3 Why wasn't the phone subpoenaed? –
4 MS. CENCI: – The IG asked him about the 5 allegation. –
6 JUDGE MILLER: – Okay.
7 MS. CENCI: Do you think that photograph
8 was still on his phone?
9 JUDGE MILLER: I have no idea.
10 MS. CENCI: Well. Besides, you'd have to 11 know the application that was used to send the 12 photograph.
13 JUDGE MILLER: Okay.
14 MS. CENCI: There's so many inst – there's, 15 there's applications which send photographs and they 16 instantly disappear –
17 JUDGE MILLER: – All right. –
18 MS. CENCI: – After seconds. I mean, come 19 on, that's just – 20 JUDGE MILLER: – Well the charge, the 21 charge was made –
22 MS. CENCI: – That's just, that's just an 23 enormous standard of proof.
24 JUDGE MILLER: Counsel, the charge in the 25 complaint is that that was done in chambers. That

1 was not –

2 MS. CENCI: – Absolutely.

3 JUDGE MILLER: Established on the record.

4 MS. CENCI: It was established –

6 MS. CENCI: – Through Mr. Kachadourian,
7 who was not fabricating because D [REDACTED] L [REDACTED] 8 established that there was a photograph.

9 JUDGE MILLER: All right.

10 MS. CENCI: You know what, when she was, 11 when she was told about this allegation by the – that 12 there was allegation that came up in connection with 13 sexual harassment allegations against respondent, that 14 there was a picture of her naked that was circulating.
15 D [REDACTED] L [REDACTED] knew she hadn't made any such 16 allegations. Where did she go? She went to David 17 Iannone, respondent's friend and associate who had 18 introduced her. Respondent had introduced her to this 19 man and he – I mean that was the source of the 20 photograph.

21 JUDGE MILLER: Okay.

22 MS. CENCI: She corroborated it. That 23 together with the referee's error –

24 JUDGE MILLER: – She didn't corroborate
25 that it was shown by the Judge –

1 MS. CENCI: – Well there are only two people
2 in chambers.

3 JUDGE MILLER: – Okay. But that was not,
4 respectfully, that was not corroborated.

5 MS. CENCI: Okay.

6 JUDGE MILLER: She knew there was a
7 photograph because she consented to photographs, 8 counsel.

9 MS. CENCI: We thought, we believed it was 10 corroborated in that the referee made an error of law.

11 JUDGE MILLER: Okay.

12 MS. CENCI: The other thing, the other thing 13 is about this letter that he had his secretary prepare.
14 You know, he claims the secretary volunteered to 15 draft this letter. She said, no, he told me to do it.
16 Now one of those two people is telling the truth and 17 one is not. And the referee didn't resolve that issue.
18 And you should resolve it against respondent because 19 that's just ridiculous. It's ridiculous that his secretary 20 would have just offered to draft a letter and oh by the 21 way let me just make it come from some third party 22 who is not even here.

23 He will be back again if you don't remove him
24 from office. The conduct is just too serious to leave 25 him on the bench.
