

Complaint Form

A complaint to the Commission must be in writing and signed. (See New York Judiciary Law Section 44.1.) A complaint does not have to be sworn or notarized. You may submit a complaint by letter or by using this complaint form. If you submit a letter, please include the information requested by this form. Please note that all complaints received by the Commission are scanned and electronic copies are provided to each Commission member; therefore, it is unnecessary to provide more than one copy of any material.
