Chenango County Town Justice Resigns Ending Inquiry into Misconduct Allegations

The New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct has closed its investigation of a complaint against David P. Daniels, a Justice of the Guilford Town Court, Chenango County, who resigned from office by letter dated October 21, 2015, and who agreed pursuant to a stipulation dated November 24, 2015, that he will neither seek nor accept judicial office at any time in the future. The Commission accepted the stipulation on December 10, 2015, concluding the matter.

Under the terms of the stipulation, Judge Daniels waived the statutory provision of confidentiality applicable to Commission proceedings, to the limited extent that the stipulation and Commission's decision and order would be public.

The Commission had commenced an investigation based upon a complaint alleging that Judge Daniels exhibited impatience and intemperance towards participants in traffic cases and eviction proceedings, made comments suggesting he prejudged the cases, failed to make proper audio records of court proceedings as required, engaged in unauthorized ex parte communications, and in one case involving his former attorney, presided without disclosing the relationship to the parties.

Judge Daniels, who is not an attorney, has served as a Justice of the Guilford Town Court since 1995.

The stipulation and the Commission's order closing the case can be found on the Commission's website: www.cjc.ny.gov.

Prior Discipline

Judge Daniels was censured by the Commission in 2011 for improperly intervening on behalf of a defendant in a traffic case.

Statistics Relating to Prior Commission Decisions

The Commission has accepted 57 such stipulations since the procedure was instituted in 2003.

Since 1978, the Commission has issued 258 determinations of admonition against judges in New York State, 314 determinations of censure and 168 determinations of removal.

The Court of Appeals has reviewed 95 Commission determinations. The Court accepted the Commission's sanctions in 79 cases (70 of which were removals, six were censures and three were admonitions). Of the remaining 16 cases, two sanctions were increased from censure to removal, and 13 were reduced: nine removal determinations were modified to censure, one removal was modified to admonition, two censures were modified to admonition, and one censure was rejected and the charges dismissed. The Court remitted one matter to the Commission for further proceedings.

Statement by Commission Administrator

Commission Administrator Robert H. Tembeckjian made the following statement:

"A judge must be and appear fair, impartial and courteous to all who appear in court. The allegations that Judge Daniels repeatedly failed to meet these standards, coupled with his censure for previous misconduct, makes his permanent departure from judicial office appropriate."

Press Availability

Mr. Tembeckjian is available throughout the day by telephone: (646) 386-4800.

Counsel

In the proceedings before the Commission, Judge Daniels represented himself.

The Commission was represented by Robert H. Tembeckjian, Administrator and Counsel to the Commission, and Senior Attorney Thea Hoeth. Senior Investigator Ryan Fitzpatrick assisted in the investigation.
