Village Justice in Nassau County Resigns While Under Investigation For Favoritism and Sexism

Peter Gallanter, a Justice of the Manorhaven Village Court, Nassau County, resigned while under investigation by the New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct.

In March 2021, the judge was apprised that the Commission was investigating complaints that he (1) dismissed or reduced tickets in multiple cases for defendants with whom he had personal relationships, (2) repeatedly described female litigants and lawyers in demeaning and sexist terms and (3) improperly used a security camera to record proceedings in his courtroom.

Judge Gallanter, who left office on April 5, 2021, agreed never to seek or accept judicial office at any time in the future. The Commission accepted a stipulation to that effect signed by the judge and the Commission's Administrator and closed its investigation.¹

¹ The Stipulation was signed on April 7, 2021. The Commission accepted it and issued an order closing the matter on April 22, 2021.

Judge Gallanter waived the statutory provision of confidentiality applicable to Commission proceedings, to the limited extent that the stipulation and Commission's order accepting it and closing the case would be public.

Judge Gallanter, who is an attorney, had been a Justice of the Manorhaven Village Court, since 2008. His current term would have expired on July 6, 2021.

The stipulation and the Commission's order closing the case can be found on the Commission's website: www.cjc.ny.gov.

Statement by Commission Administrator

Commission Administrator Robert H. Tembeckjian made the following statement.

“It is intolerable for a judge to demean women with sexist language, or to bestow favors from the bench to friends. The complaints against Judge Gallanter were serious, and his permanent departure from the bench is appropriate.”

Statistics Relating to Prior Commission Decisions

The Commission has accepted 103 such stipulations since the procedure was instituted in 2003.

Since 1978, the Commission has issued 278 determinations of admonition against judges in New York State, 338 determinations of censure and 175 determinations of removal.

The Court of Appeals has reviewed 101 Commission determinations. The Court accepted the Commission's sanctions in 85 cases (76 of which were removals, six were censures and three were admonitions). Of the remaining 16 cases, two sanctions were increased from censure to removal, and 13 were reduced: nine removal determinations were modified to censure, one removal was modified to admonition, two censures were modified to admonition, and one censure was rejected and the charges dismissed. The Court remitted one matter to the Commission for further proceedings.

Counsel

In the proceedings before the Commission, Judge Gallanter represented himself.

The Commission was represented by Robert H. Tembeckjian, Administrator and Counsel to the Commission; Mark Levine, Deputy Administrator in Charge of the New York City office; and Staff Attorney Stella Gilliland. Investigator Christina Partida was assigned to the case.
